Baboon Ecology JÃ¶ Altmann, S. A. Altmann, 1970-09-14 Baboon Ecology Stuart A. Altmann, Jeanne Altmann, 1970

Sexual Selection and the Descent of Man Bernard Campbell, 2017-07-12 Just over one hundred and thirty years ago Charles Darwin in The Descent of Man and Selection in Relation to Sex 1871 developed remarkably accurate conclusions about man's ancestry based on a review of general comparative anatomy and psychology in which he regarded sexual selection as a necessary part of the evolutionary process. But the attention of biologists turned to the more general concept of natural selection in which sexual selection plays a complex role that has been little understood. This volume significantly broadens the scope of modern evolutionary biology by looking at this important and long neglected concept of great importance. In this book which is the first full discussion of sexual selection since 1871 leading biologists bring modern genetic theory and behavior observation to bear on the subject. The distinguished authors consider many aspects of sexual selection in many species including man within the context of contemporary evolutionary theory and research. The result is a remarkably original and well rounded view of the whole concept that will be invaluable especially to students of evolution and human sexual behavior. The lucid authority of the contributors and the importance of the topic will interest all who share in man's perennial fascination with his own history. The book will be of central importance to a wide variety of professionals including biologists, anthropologists and geneticists. It will be an invaluable supplementary text for courses in vertebrate biology, theory of evolution, genetics and physical anthropology. It is especially important with the emergence of alternative explanations of human development under the rubric of creationism and doctrines of intelligent design. Bibliotheca

Primatologica, 1971 Putting Psychology in Its Place Graham Richards, 2002 Graham Richards gives historical perspective to key issues in contemporary psychology such as psychology and women and psychology and race as well as more traditional topics like behaviourism and Gestalt psychology. From publisher's description Primate Ontogeny, Cognition and Social Behaviour Phyllis C. Lee, James G. Else, 1986-07-25 This volume presents a comprehensive review of the current research in the field of primate thinking, learning and behavioural development. Recent theories of the ways in which primates perceive their world are integrated with the ways that they behave and communicate about each other and their environment. Many different species in both the wild and in captivity are discussed with coverage from the social development of neonates to the behaviour of adults. The common theme to the contributions is an attempt to understand how primates perceive, learn about and manipulate their social and physical environment. Primate Ecology Robert W.

and Environment A. Esser, 2012-12-06 The International Symposium on The Use of Space by Animals and Men sponsored by the Animal Behavior Society took place at the 135th Annual Meeting of the AAAS in Dallas, Texas on December 29-31, 1968.

This book presents the text of all papers and edited discussions as well as the contributions made by several individuals who were unable to attend the Symposium. The idea of holding the Symposium evolved following my presentation of a paper to the Animal Behavior Society in 1965. On the use of space by psychiatric patients. Members in attendance at that session chaired by G. Gottlieb shared his interest in my compilation of human data presented in a measurable spatial context. This pleasant experience persuaded me that a discussion of space might be shared as a frame of reference which could open avenues of communication between behavioral scientists, the design community and the decision makers in our society.

Mating System of the Sand Fiddler Crab, Uca Pugilator John Harold Christy, 1980. Human Evolution Graham Richards, 2019-06-07. Originally published in 1987. Human Evolution looks at theories of the evolution of human behaviour contemporary at the time of publication. The book reviews competing theories of psychological and social evolution and provides a detailed historical introduction to the subject. A key theoretical concern which emerges in the book includes the psychological significance of the human evolution issue itself. The period of human evolution covered ranges from the demise of the Miocene hominoids to the emergence of civilization. Topics covered include functions of origin, myths, history of the study of human evolution, methods and data bases, theories of the nature of hominisation, origins of bipedalism, language and tool use, theories of social evolution, theories of cave art and the spread of Homo sapiens to America and Australia.
