A miracle story. IRISH TIMES. This is the affecting true story of a remarkable young boy named John Lahutsky. John, born in Russia in 1990, was afflicted with cerebral palsy, abandoned by his birth mother, and consigned to certain death in the deplorable orphanages and asylums of Russia. He was discovered living half-naked and confined in an iron-barred cot for 24 hours a day. But he refused to succumb to the regime of abuse and enlisted a range of people to help him escape. For three years, he was under constant threat of being returned to an asylum, but after a series of miraculous coincidences and terrible disappointments, he moved to America. He has been able to start a new life and, now aged eighteen, is a full partner in this book, with his memories supplemented by outsiders who battled the system on his behalf.
