Making Babies Sandra Sabatini, 2006-01-01 Although the infant has been a consistent figure in literature and for many people a significant figure in personal life there s been little attention focused on infants or on their place in Canadian fiction until now In this book Sandra Sabatini examines Canadian fiction to trace the ideological charge behind the represented infant Examining writers from L M Montgomery and Frederick Philip Grove to Thomas King and Terry Griggs Sabatini compares women s writing about babies with the way infants appear in texts by men over the course of a century She discovers a range of changing attitudes toward babies After being seen as a source of financial burden social shame or sentimental fantasy infants have increasingly become a source of value and meaning The book challenges the perception of babies as passive objects of care and argues for a reading of the infant as a subject in itself It also reflects upon how the representations of infancy in Canadian literature offer an intriguing portrait of how we imagine ourselves

My Baby, My Baby Our Timeless Journey of Faith, Hope, and Love
Jennifer B. Sturgeon, Alma B. Allen, 2014-05-12 Life and death struggles a common thread that connects us as human beings are vividly revealed in this inspirational and unforgettable true story as told by a mother and her daughter of their babies born with life threatening birth defects Swept away on an uncharted and treacherous journey one thing clearly emerges God the ultimate thread that held them together through their darkest hours was waiting for them there He gave them beauty for ashes the oil of joy for mourning and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness so He might be glorified through their babies life and death struggles Isaiah 61 3b At every bend in the road lives were forever changed The baby boy unable to ever speak a word about what he endured in his fight for life went to his grave never knowing what a giant impression his tiny handprint had left on every heart he touched leaving this world a better place than he found it For the little girl the veil separating Heaven and

Earth was lifted Mommy I see an angel Hoping to get a glimpse her mommy searched the hospital room eagerly Where do you see an angel her mommy asked She pointed overhead Up there in the corner of my room one angel with big pink wings Although her mommy didnt see the Heavenly being together they felt the comfort of its presence On their timeless journey of faith hope and love their loving God went with them through it all healing hearts changing lives sharing their deepest sorrows and sending his angels to comfort and help them Their stories formed in the crucible of life and death struggles were transformed by the grace of God into a thing of beauty He hath made every thing beautiful in his time Ecclesiastes 3 11a KJV
