Babies in the Library! Jane Marino, 2007 Eclectic library reading programs for young children have blossomed across the nation over the last decade encouraging in toddlers a fondness for the library and an excitement for the caches of books to be found there Likewise in an effort to promote a love of language in babies as young as three months old scores of early childhood initiatives are beginning to sprout as well Aimed at children's librarians and other professionals who work with very young children this librarian tested sourcebook provides complete programs that spotlight the value and necessity of singing speaking and reading to babies in their earliest months Ten ready to use programs are divided for their intended audience five for pre walkers and five for walkers Marino combines rhymes involving body movement songs fingerplays circle games and books in ways that teach interaction skills with young children and help to enrich their language and enhance their listening capabilities Several of the rhymes are repeated in a take home section to aid librarians and others in charge of children's programs to present parents and caregivers with the tools they need to use rhymes and activities whenever and wherever they want A helpful bibliography lists the best picture books programming books rhyme collections and numerous recordings that are suitable for very young children The captivating activities in Babies in the Library will delight the youngest library users while making it easy for librarians to create programs for this important and growing segment of the library population Reading with Babies, Toddlers and Twos Susan Straub, KJ Dell'Antonia, 2013-05-07 It's never too early or too late to start sharing books with your baby. Reading is one of the first activities you can enjoy with your child, and Reading with Babies, Toddlers and Twos gets you started. Instill a love for reading early by answering questions such as: Which books will a newborn baby enjoy? What do you buy after you've read Goodnight Moon? Are eBooks and apps appropriate for young children? Can I make up a story to tell my child? What are the best collections of fairy tales, fables, and other classic stories? A parenting resource to help with early learning and literacy. Straub, Dell'Antonia, and Payne use their decades of experience as parents, book reviewers, and children's librarians to bring you the very best in children's books so you'll never run out of ideas for reading with your baby. An accessible and enjoyable guide, this book is a go-to resource. Traci Lester, executive director, Reach Out and Read of Greater New York. The Publishers Weekly, 2004
