Vasher,2020-11-23 Eight and a Half Years Sixteen Infertility Cycles Four Timed Intercourse Cycles Two IUI Cycles Two Egg Retrievals Seven Frozen Embryo Transfers Thousands of Dollars Two Miscarriages Three Pregnancies Live Births That s my infertility story Almost a decade of trying almost 65 000 spent on infertility treatments So many IVF cycles that I can give myself progesterone shots in the rear So many transvaginal pelvic ultrasounds that a pap smear no longer impresses me Changed relationships changed career goals A whole list of things no one should ever say to someone going through infertility And almost a baby Almost Because even though I am scheduled for a C section next week as I publish this book I still do not have any guarantees Infertility is a hell of a life crisis But also if you can learn how to navigate these choppy waters if you can learn how to let go of what you can t control how to cope with the hard parts you never saw coming how to play the world s longest waiting game you will build resilience and grit you didn t think you were capable of This is not a how to have a baby book It s not a how to survive until you have a baby book It s a how to survive and maybe even thrive while trying to have a baby book That s what I know how to survive infertility and make the best of it while you re praying for the miracle of a baby And I know how to survive this because I ve done it for nearly a decade Some people just have sex to get pregnant Not me Maybe not you either We have infertility battles to fight and this gets worse before it gets better But I was made strong enough for this and so were you Let me show you how I know THE BRIDE'S BABY OF SHAME Yu Asami,CAITLIN CREWS,2021-05-01 I ran away from the man I loved for a loveless marriage Sophie feels trapped by the fact that she s being forced into a political marriage Then she meets Sicilian businessman Renzo who offers to set her free She falls in love with him at first sight and gives him her virginity but she leaves him afterward knowing she can t hide from her destiny On the day of her wedding Renzo breaks into the ceremony and finds out that she is pregnant He still wants her but can she be more than just his mistress The Business of Being Made Katie Gentile,2015-12-22 The Business of Being Made is the first book to critically analyze assisted reproductive technologies ARTs from a transdisciplinary perspective integrating psychoanalytic and cultural theories It is a ground breaking collection exploring ARTs through diverse methods including interview research clinical case studies psychoanalytic based ethnography and memoir Gathering clinicians and researchers who specialize in this area this book engages current research in psychoanalysis sociology anthropology philosophy and debates in feminist queer and cultural theory about affect temporality and bodies With psychoanalysis as its fulcrum The Business of Being Made explores the social constructions and personal experiences of ARTs Katie Gentile frames the cultural context exploring the ways ARTs have become a complex form of playing with time attempting to manufacture a hopeful future in the midst of growing global uncertainty The contributors then present a range of varied experiences related to ARTs including Interviews with women and men undergoing ARTs A psychoanalytic memoir of male infertility Clinical research and work with transgender gay and lesbian patients creating new Oedipal constellations the experiences of LGBTQ people within the medical system and the variety of families that emerge Research on the experiences of egg donors now central to the business of ARTs and a corresponding clinical case study of successful egg donation The experiences of ongoing failure which is the often unacknowledged for ART procedures How and when people choose to stop using ARTs A psychoanalytic ethnography of a neonatal intensive care unit populated in part with the babies created through these technologies and their parents haggard and in shock after years of failed attempts Full of original material The Business of Being Made conveys the ambivalence of these technologies without simplifying their complicated consequences for the bodies of individuals the family cultures and our planet This book will be relevant to clinicians medical and psychological personnel working in assisted reproductive technologies and infertility as well as academics working in the fields of sociology literature queer and feminist theories and at the intersections of cultural critical and psychoanalytic theories

A Teacher Has Something to Say Dina Nwaokai-Beecham, 2006-03-02 Its true what they say about a teacher being on the front lines up close and personal with students from all walks of life and backgrounds Many think this line is a dangerous one with the children of today but this teacher wants you to see children as she has seen them for years as beautiful human beings who are worthy of being taught In this book you will journey through the humor emotions stress and rewards of teaching children in an inner city school district You will laugh You may cry but most importantly you will see these children as precious darlings just as the author did as she went through the experience of teaching This book is a must read for new teachers potential teachers parents students and anyone who believes in the universal love of children

Humanitarian, 1892 ABUNDANCE Is Your Birthright RONI BISSETT, 2013 Abundance is your birthright claim it is much more a teacher than a book It is a hands on step by step teaching manual on how to create the life you really want to live It enables the reader to define the real meaning of abundance for him or herself and gives specific instructions on how to get there from here how to bring that definition into a manifested physical reality It has been said change your thinking change your life Change your perceptions from poverty consciousness to prosperity consciousness and claim the abundance that is your birthright

Mothers, Medicine and Morality in Rural Mali Lianne Holten, 2013 How to understand the simultaneity of parental love and care with inaction when a child is ill This question inspired author Lianne Holten to conduct the ethnographic study presented in this book Holten worked and lived in the isolated village of Farabako Mali to help establish a maternity clinic She clearly describes the tension between Western biomedical thinking and local ideas on health Holten explains how biomedical assumptions make the mothers actions appear incomprehensible but she also shows the logic within the local context This study contributes to the understanding of the importance of local moralities in health and will be useful for public health initiatives in sub Saharan Africa Series Mande Worlds Vol 6
