Langner, 2005-12-11 Although many books are written about bereavement very few are written about the fear of one's own death and most of these focus chiefly on terminal illness In contrast this book looks at the ways in which the fear of death operates on a back burner throughout our lives and how it influences the choices we make and the paths that we follow in life The author presents a moral hierarchy of behavior used in coping with the fear of death and dying America, Christianity, And The Forgotten Link Allen Wooten, 2013-06-10 Prov 18 17 He who tells his story first makes people think he is right until the other comes to test him For almost seventy years now we've been taught American history primarily from a secularist's viewpoint with seemingly convincing arguments for a Godless America and Constitution that it sounds right Yet Christian Americans have heard enough And we're now stepping up to cross examine their claims with books like this one What were the religious beliefs of most of our nation's founders Was America founded as a Christian nation and what does this mean Where did the concept of religious freedom originate and how did it evolve into what it is today If we started out as a Christian republic then what went wrong How can we restore our founders original intent to America This book highlights the Christian influences in America's exploration colonization national formation and progression Once you've heard this other side of the story you must make up your own mind and then act on it Stories of My Life Mary Morgan McKnight, 2004 Stories of My Life Ivan Clifford Morgan is a collection of fascinating remembrances chronicling 91 years of a life well lived Recounting the sometimes harrowing history of his first ancestor in Canada pioneer John Matthews Ivan Morgan relives childhood adventures from Ontario to Saskatchewan ushers skeletons out of the closet reveals historic heart rendering glimpses of World War II and even provides recipes from Ivan the cook His vignettes run the gamut from romantic to humorous to inspiring with true tales of mystery invention spiritual insight tragedy and triumph From these autobiographical scenes of the 20th Century life a picture emerges of a remarkable man through brushstrokes of youth marriage family a distinguished public service career in ministry and education and a productive retirement Woven into these pages are the threads of a generous life of a man who loved greatly and was greatly loved Why Joy? Jane Jennings,1978 Our Miracle Blessing Monica Morse,2016-12-15
