Bouvier, Carol J. De Vita, 1991 Hollywood and the Baby Boom James Russell, Jim Whalley, 2017-12-28

Between 1946 and 1964 seventy five million babies were born dwarfing the generations that preceded and succeeded them At each stage of its life cycle the baby boom's great size has dictated the terms of national policy and public debate While aspects of this history are well documented the relationship between the baby boom and Hollywood has never been explored And yet for almost 40 years baby boomers made up the majority of Hollywood's audience and since the 1970s boomers have dominated movie production Hollywood and the Baby Boom weaves together interviews with leading filmmakers archival research and the memories of hundreds of ordinary filmgoers to tell the full story of Hollywood's relationship with the boomers for the first time The authors demonstrate the profound influence of the boomers on the ways that movies were made seen and understood since the 1950s The result is a compelling new account that draws upon an unprecedented range of sources and offers new insights into the history of American movies

Japan's Contested War Memories Philip A. Seaton, 2007-03-12 Japan's Contested War Memories is an important and significant book that explores the struggles within contemporary Japanese society to come to terms with Second World War history Focusing particularly on 1972 onwards the period starts with the normalization of relations with China and the return of Okinawa to Japan in 1972 and ends with the sixtieth anniversary commemorations Analyzing the variety of ways in which the Japanese people narrate contest and interpret the past the book is also a major critique of the way the subject has been treated in much of the English language Philip Seaton concludes that war history in Japan today is more divisive and widely argued over than in any of the other major Second World War combatant nations Providing a sharp contrast to the many orthodox statements about Japanese ignorance amnesia and denial about the war this is an engaging and illuminating study that will appeal to scholars and students of Japanese history politics cultural studies society and memory theory
