The Legend of Baby Doe John Burke, 1989-01-01 In her pulchritudinous prime Baby Doe was called the Silver Queen of Colorado by journalists and that shameless hussy by the proper wives of the men who eyed her Flirtatious adventurous ambitious Elizabeth McCourt Doe gave everyone a lot to talk about when she met Horace Tabor the Silver King of Leadville in 1880 Three years later they were free to legalize their passion Although thirty years separated them they were well matched in romantic recklessness If The Legend of Baby Doe is the lowdown on the high jinks of two public lives it is also the story of a love that survived spectacularly good times and bad Before bad times came Baby and Horace went on a spending spree They built an opulent opera house in Denver and bought an Italian ate villa Baby Doe went out bejeweled and ermined and sat at home alone snubbed by the social dragons John Burke has written about the giddy rise of a bonanza king who dreamed of entering the White House with Baby Doe on his arm and about the disastrous fall they
