When the Center Is on Fire Diane Sue Harriford, Becky W. Thompson, 2021 In this lively and provocative book two feminist public sociologists turn to classical social thinkers W E B Du Bois Max Weber Karl Marx and mile Durkheim to understand a series of twenty first century social traumas including the massacre at Columbine High School the 9 11 attacks the torture at Abu Ghraib prison and Hurricane Katrina Each event was overwhelming in its own right while the relentless pace at which they occurred made it nearly impossible to absorb and interpret them in any but the most superficial ways Yet each uncovered social problems that cry out for our understanding and remediation In When the Center Is on Fire Becky Thompson and Diane Harriford assert that classical social theorists grappled with the human condition in ways that remain profoundly relevant They show for example that the loss of double consciousness that Du Bois identified in African Americans enabled political elites to turn a blind eye to the poverty and vulnerability of many of New Orleans's citizens. The authors' compelling, sometimes irreverent, often searing interpretations make this book essential reading for students, activists, generations X, Y, and Z, and everybody bored by the 6 o'clock news.

Misha and His Leningrad Diary Evelina De Gelmont, 2008-06. This is the story of Misha, a young Russian boy who survived the siege of Leningrad by Nazi Germany during World War II. For 900 days (1941-1944), three million Leningraders endured starvation, lack of water, electricity, and fuel, living on one small piece of bread per day and subjected to endless air raids and bombardments. Cold and starvation destroyed over one million lives. The focal point of the book is based on the events detailed in Misha's diary. The remainder describes the historical context and impact of the blockade and the survivor's life story. The book is intended as a tribute to the human spirit.

Evelina was born in Russia in 1934. She worked as an engineer in Lvov, Ukraine, for many years. It was there that she married Misha. After her husband died prematurely, Evelina decided to emigrate to America. She settled in Minnesota and found a job as an engineer. It was in America that Evelina became a Christian and married a minister. For many years, she had an unshakeable determination to write this book, a biography of her beloved husband. Even as she struggled with cancer, which eventually took her life, finishing the book remained one of her top concerns. Although she never saw it published, her hope was that one day many people would be inspired by her husband's great zeal for life.

In Misha's own words: "I have just now realized what life means to me. Life is a great gift given to us; it is not always lived properly."
