The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter, 2014-02-01 Progressions presents another batch of erudite and entertaining essays on a variety of topics covering Saskatchewan's literary development as well as tributes to some of the major contributors to that history and a pictorial glimpse into the past Writers stopped using typewriters and even moved beyond the Kaypro computer box for their compositions The Saskatchewan School of the Arts was shut down ending the Fort San writing experience But the Sage Hill Writing Experience quickly rose to replace it Saskatchewan literary presses really found their feet and published important and lasting books A wave of new writers joined the founders of the province's literary tradition Responding to this growth in the community the Saskatchewan Book Awards and the Saskatchewan Festival of Words in Moose Jaw came into being The Saskatchewan writing community stormed out of the 20th Century in a frenzy of creativity and accomplishment Essay contributors to Volume 2 include Dave Margoshes Jeanette Lynes Aritha Van Herk Alison Calder and seven more The eleven essays include such topics as To House or House Not The New Saskatchewan Women Poets Contemporary Nature Writing in Saskatchewan Fort San Sage Hill and Brave and Foolish Nonconformists In addition literary tributes are offered for Caroline Heath Pat Krause Martha Blum and Max Braithwaite

The Early Poetry of Charles Wright Robert D. Denham, 2009-01-27 This companion covers Charles Wright's first two trilogies Country Music 1982 and The World of the Ten Thousand Things 1990 providing biographical details information on Wright's sources and influences and historical notes It pays special attention to the way that Wright's poems work together and the links that are formed between them While each poem is given its own commentary the author argues that they work together in a concentrated whole to document a man's spiritual journey Confrontation ,1994 Court Poetry in Late Medieval England and Scotland Antony J. Hasler, 2011-03-10 This book explores the anxious and unstable relationship between court poetry and various forms of authority political and cultural in England and Scotland at the beginning of the sixteenth century Through poems by Skelton Dunbar Douglas Hawes Lyndsay and Barclay it examines the paths by which court poetry and its narrators seek multiple forms of legitimation from royal and institutional sources but also in the media of script and print The book is the first for some time to treat English and Scottish material of its period together and responds to European literary contexts the dialogue between vernacular and Latin matter and current critical theory In so doing it claims that public and occasional writing evokes a counter discourse in the secreties and subversions of medieval love fictions The result is a poetry that queries and at times cancels the very authority to speak that it so proudly promotes
