 Committee,Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Select Committee on Science and Technology,2011 The Science and Technology Committee today agrees with and commends the scientific vision for the new UK Centre for Medical Research and Innovation but expresses reservations about the project s location It says the case for the centre s central London location near St Pancras station was not overwhelming and it could have been sited elsewhere The advantages of co location with universities and hospitals and access to good transport links which the Committee accepts play a fundamental role in the centre s vision come at a price extra construction costs a site incapable of expansion and the concentration of medical sciences in the golden triangle in the south of England On the issue of funding the Committee s concerns about the project s costs were assuaged by evidence from the Government that the taxpayer will not be liable to any further costs should the project overrun On the management structure the committee was told that an experienced team with a proven track record were now taking charge The Committee is sympathetic to the local community s concerns about the project and recognises attempts made by the centre s management to engage with the local community but says it is saddened that efforts have not been as successful as they might have been One way some benefit could accrue back to the local community

 Someone must have known what happened to Matilda Hacker For someone in that house had killed her So how could the murderer prove so elusive Standing four storeys tall in an elegant Bloomsbury terrace No 4 Euston Square was a well kept respectable boarding house But beneath this genteel Victorian London veneer lay murderous intrigue On 9 May 1879 the body of a former resident Matilda Hacker was discovered by chance in the coal cellar The ensuing investigation led by Inspector Charles Hagen rising star of the recently formed CID stripped bare the dark side of Victorian domesticity In this true crime story Sinclair McKay meticulously evaluates the evidence in first hand sources His gripping account sheds new light on a mystery that eluded Scotland Yard Praise for Murder at No 4 Euston Square With the gusto of a penny dreadful Murder at No 4 Euston Road dodges any stodgy courtroom testimony that can weigh down true crime stories and sticks to the juicy details It is hard to avoid the comparison with Kate Summerscale s The Suspicions of Mr Whicher and it has similar historical richness and plot twisting The Spectator UK Sinclair McKay is an accomplished and talented author with a rare skill True crime fans and history buffs will enjoy this book coming away with an enthralling true crime story and a new knowledge and understanding of Victorian London Crime Traveller UK Gripping gothic and deeply poignant The Mail on Sunday UK A meticulously researched book Brian Viner Daily Mail UK Reports from Commissioners Great Britain.
