Back To Africa A History Of Sierra Leone And Liberia:

Back to Africa Richard West,1971 Abolition and Empire in Sierra Leone and Liberia B. Everill,2012-12-15 Bronwen Everill offers a new perspective on African global history applying a comparative approach to freed slave settlers in Sierra Leone and Liberia to understand their role in the anti slavery colonization movements of Britain and America Back to Africa: a history of Sierra Leone and Liberia Lonfon, J. Cape Richard West, The Krio of Sierra Leone Akintola J. G. Wyse,1989 Wyse interprets the history of the Krio from their earliest days as a collective entity to the present charting their rise and decline as a political force and examining the characteristic ethos of the people as expressed in their social economic and above all educational aspirations African American Settlements in West Africa A. Beyan,2005-09-16 John Brown Russwurm and African American Settlement in West Africa examines Russwurm s intellectual accomplishments and significant contributions to the black civil rights movement in America from 1826 1829 and more significantly explores the essential characteristics that distinguished his thoughts and endeavours from other black leaders in America Liberia and Maryland in Liberia Not surprisingly the most controversial of Russwurm s ideas was his unwavering support of the American Colonization Society ACS and the Maryland State Colonization Society MSCS two organizations that most civil rights activists found racist and pro slavery Beyan probes the social and intellectual sources underlying motives and the legacies of Russwurm s thoughts and endeavours all in an attempt to dissect why Russwurm acted and made the choices that he did Emigration to Liberia Matthew McDaniel,2013-08-01 Between 1853 and 1903 some 500 African Americans left the Chattahoochee Valley of Georgia and Alabama to start new lives in the West African Republic of Liberia Most of the emigrants departed for Liberia during the uncertainty of the post Civil War years of 1867 and 1868 Most sought safety and escape from a still intact white supremacist society The ready availability of land in Liberia also promised greater opportunities for prosperity there than in the South Black nationalism and evangelical zeal motivated others Liberia would be their own country and afford an opportunity to spread Christianity throughout Africa The emigrant group was largely made up of families and included many children consequently the group was of a young average age Most were farmers but some tradesmen and clergymen also emigrated All faced many hardships Some returned to the United States however most stayed and a small number prospered Although the Chattahoochee Valley emigration to Liberia was a disappointment to many a resourceful few found escape and safety from a white supremacist society and their own land in their own country Historical sources on this regional migration are limited but the American Colonization Society ACS the primary sponsor of the Liberian emigration movement recorded demographic data on the emigrants Some emigrant correspondence was preserved in the journal of the ACS and in local newspapers of the period From these sources the history of this movement the motivations and characteristics of the emigrant group and the experience of the emigrants in Liberia can be developed Emigration to Liberia Matthew F. Travel and Dislocation in Contemporary American Fiction Aliko Varvogli,2012-03-12 This book offers a critical study and analysis of American fiction at the beginning of the twenty first century It focuses on novels that go outward literally and metaphorically and it concentrates on narratives that take place mainly away from the US s geographical borders Varvogli draws on current theories of travel globalization and post national studies and proposes a dynamic model that will enable scholars to approach contemporary American fiction and assess recent changes and continuities Concentrating on work by Philip Caputo Dave Eggers Norman Rush and Russell Banks the book proposes that American literature s engagement with Africa has shifted and needs to be approached using new methodologies Novels by Amy Tan Garrison Keillor Jonathan Safran Foer and Dave Eggers are examined in the context of travel and globalization and works by Chang rae Lee Ethan Canin Dinaw Mengestu and Jhumpa Lahiri are used as examples of the changing face of the American immigrant novel and the changing meaning of national belonging New Directions in the Study of African American Recolonization Beverly

Tomek, Matthew J. Hetrick, 2022-10-18 Beginning in 1816 the American Colonization Society worked to send American blacks to resettle in Africa From inception however its foundational ethos has been debated These debates continued long after the effective end of the ACS during WWI through the Civil Rights movement to today when even historians among the Press s own authors respectfully hold opposing views In this volume Beverly Tomek and Matthew Hetrick gather essays from scholars with different opinions and divergent methodologies offering not only new research to address some of the old questions about American colonization and missionary activities but also new questions to spur further debate The African Diaspora A. I. Asiwaju, Michael Crowder, 1978 Pan-Africanism, and the Politics of African Citizenship and Identity Toyin Falola, Kwame Essien, 2013-10-08 There is no recent literature that underscores the transition from Pan Africanism to Diaspora discourse This book examines the gradual shift and four major transformations in the study of Pan Africanism It offers an academic post mortem that seeks to gauge the extent to which Pan Africanism overlaps with the study of the African Diaspora and reverse migrations how Diaspora studies has penetrated various disciplines while Pan Africanism is located on the periphery of the field The book argues that the gradual shift from Pan African discourses has created a new pathway for engaging Pan African ideology from academic and social perspectives Also the book raises questions about the recent political waves that have swept across North Africa and their implications to the study of twenty first century Pan African solidarity on the African continent The ways in which African institutions are attracting and mobilizing returnees and Pan Africanists with incentives as dual citizenship for diasporans to support reforms in Africa offers a new alternative approach for exploring Pan African ideology in the twenty first century Returnees are also using these incentives to gain economic and cultural advantage The book will appeal to policy makers government institutions research libraries undergraduate and graduate students and scholars from many different disciplines International Encyclopedia of Comparative Law K. Zweigert, 2003-01-01 No Sales rights in German speaking countries Eastern Europe Portugal Spain Italy Greece South and Central America Undoing Things Gavin Lucas, Shannon Lee Dawdy, 2025-05-26 Undoing Things explores all the ways in which things become undone be they objects bodies places or worlds Although archaeologists have long attended to the productive dimensions of materiality and material culture as a coherent phenomenon making objects building things constructing identities the discourse around undoing is more fragmented Topics such as ruination death decay demolition and collapse are usually examined separately Undoing Things asks what connections or continuities can be discerned in a diverse range of practices both intentional and taphonomic both destructive and healing Is there a creative component to undoing How visible are different processes of undoing How is time implicated Is undoing reversible Who has the power to undo and when is undoing empowering What does it take to undo knowledge These and other questions are examined through archaeological studies ranging from classical Maya and colonial Caribbean examples to present day Liberia historical and ethnographic approaches to present day Argentina and the contemporary art world In the first quarter of the 21st century human worlds have experienced a series of ruptures from climate related disasters political violence and the Covid 19 pandemic Undoing Things helps move us beyond a cloud of chaos with a deeper understanding of how and why things fall apart and is vital reading for archaeologists and those in related disciplines

Post-War Regimes and State Reconstruction in Liberia and Sierra Leone Amadu Sesay, Charles Ukeje, 2009 This original study by some of West Africa's leading scholars interrogates post war reconstruction processes in the twin West African countries of Liberia and Sierra Leone focusing on the effects of regime types on the nature scope success or failure of their post war reconstruction efforts

"New Negroes from Africa" Rosanne Marion Adderley, 2006 In 1838 the British government outlawed the slave trade emancipated all of the slaves in its possessions and began to interdict slave ships en route to the Americas Almost at once colonies that had depended on slave labour were faced with a liberated and unwilling labour force At the same time newly freed slaves in Sierra Leone and later from America and elsewhere were persuaded to emigrate to other British colonies to provide a new workforce to replace or augment remnants of the old Some became paid labourers others indentured servants These two groups one English speaking colonists the other new African immigrants are the focus of this study of receptive communities in the West Indies Adderley describes the formation of these settlements and working from scant records tries to tease out information about the families of liberated Africans the labour they performed their religions and the culture they brought with them She addresses issues of gender ethnicity and identity and concludes with a discussion of repatriation
