Backbone of the Army Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies, 2000 Throughout history non commissioned officers NCOs have played a central role in armies as disciplinarians closely associated with the welfare of the troops and discipline in the ranks Although at low levels of command officers and NCOs were allies a strong divide existed between them Officers who held formal command authority were educated to different standards and controlled every aspect of army doctrine and policy The NCO corps remained figuratively in the barracks separate from decisions effecting the employment and development of the army relationship and in the expectations of NCOs themselves The social gap between the ranks has narrowed and separation based on differences in education has become less distinct Young soldiers are more aware of social military and international issues than ever before Better educated soldiers and NCOs now expect to be involved in unit decisions and are less likely to routinely accept the idea that officers know best The challenge for the army of today is to recognize the opportunities for positive and to see that the army of the future takes them into account officers considers this challenge The authors examine the historical role of NCOs as well as the factors influencing the future army and future NCO recruits They discuss the implications for education training doctrine and organization offering comparative assessments from allied armies United States Army Combat Forces Journal ,1958-08 Military Intelligence Professional Bulletin ,1999 Officers' Call ,1989 The NCO Journal , United States Statutes at Large United States,2009 Volumes for 1950 19 contained treaties and international agreements issued by the Secretary of State as United States treaties and other international agreements Armor ,1983 Proceedings of the 2022 5th International Conference on Humanities Education and Social Sciences (ICHESS 2022) Augustin Holl,Jun Chen,Guiyun Guan,2023-02-09 This is an open access book ICHESs started in 2018 the last four sessions of ICHESs have all been successfully published ICHESs is to bring together innovative academics and industrial experts in the field of Humanities Education and Social Sciences to a common forum And we achieved the primary goal which is to promote research and developmental activities in Humanities Education and Social Sciences and another goal is to promote scientific information interchange between researchers developers engineers students and practitioners working all around the world 2022 5th International Conference on Humanities Education and Social Sciences ICHESs 2022 was held on October 14 16 2022 in Chongqing China ICHESs 2022 is to bring together innovative academics and industrial experts in the field of Humanities Education and Social Sciences to a common forum The primary goal of the conference is to promote research and developmental activities in Humanities Education and Social Sciences and another goal is to promote scientific information interchange between researchers developers engineers students and practitioners working all around the world The conference will be held every year to make it an ideal platform for people to share views and experiences in Humanities Education and Social Sciences and related areas Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1995
