Backpacking Through Divorce:

I Slept With And Divorced My Devils Joseph Rozeau, 2016-03-15 I Slept with and Divorced My Devils is a true story of triumph over tragedy. It is the story of a child desperate to survive despite the adversities within a dysfunctional family. It is also the story of Joseph Rozeau who survived years of abuse and neglect to forge his own path. The atrocities he experienced created a vicious cycle that followed him through the better part of his life until a series of events forced him to realize the need to break the cycle. Taking stock of his life and his future, Joseph worked hard to change his thinking and his behaviour. By breaking the cycle, he was able to understand the detriment he was doing to himself and consciously change his behaviours for the better. I Slept With and Divorced My Devils recounts how a young child survived parents with psychiatric disorders, alcohol addiction, and domestic violence issues. How he and his siblings were failed by his extended family, the child welfare system, and despite the odds, was able to become a police officer and provide a stable home for his own child. He endured many hardships and failures to finally reach a state where he could let go of the past, take responsibility for his decisions, and envision a positive future.
