Bad Boy Good Boy:

Such a Nice Guy Phil Torcivia, 2009-10-16 Strip a man near fifty of his marital obligations transplant him into the treacherous dating scene of San Diego and something funny happens Enjoy 84 humorous essays about one man's struggle with relationships love and lifestyles on the West Coast , Please Pay Attention Please: Bruce Nauman's Words Bruce Nauman, 2005-02-18 The most comprehensive collection to date of the artist Bruce Nauman's writings plus all of his major interviews from 1965 to 2001 Since the 1960s the artist Bruce Nauman has developed a highly complex and pluralistic oeuvre ranging from discrete sculpture performance film video and text based works to elaborate multipart installations incorporating sound video recording and monitors and architectural structures Nauman's work is often interpreted in terms of movements and mediums including performance postminimalism process and conceptual art thereby emphasizing its apparent eclecticism But what is often overlooked is that underlying these seemingly disparate artistic tendencies are conceptual continuities one of which is an investigation of the nature of language Unlike many of his contemporaries Nauman has refrained from participating in the critical discourse surrounding his own work He has given relatively few interviews over the course of his career and has little to do with the art press or critical establishment Indeed he granted Janet Kraynak and The MIT Press almost complete autonomy in the preparation of this volume In contrast to Nauman's reputation for silence however from the beginning of his career the incorporation of language has been a central feature of his art This collection takes as its starting point the seeming paradox of an artist of so few words who produces an art of so many words Please Pay Attention Please contains all of Nauman's major interviews from 1965 to 2001 as well as a comprehensive body of his writings including instructions and proposal texts dialogues transcribed from audio video works and prose texts written specifically for installation sculptures Where relevant the texts are accompanied by illustrations of the artworks for which they were composed In the critical essay that serves as the book's introduction the editor investigates Nauman's art in relation to the linguistic turn in art practices of the 1960s understanding language through the speech act and its legacy in contemporary art Occasional Reflections, Offered Principally for the Use of Schools George Dillwyn, 1815 The Jesus Legend Traced in Egypt for Ten Thousand Years Gerald Massey, 2008-11-01 It goes unappreciated by modern Egyptologists but it is embraced by those who savor the concept of a hidden history of humanity and those who approach all human knowledge from the perspective of the esoteric Gerald Massey's massive Ancient Egypt The Light of the World first published in 1907 and crowning achievement of the self-taught scholar redefines the roots of Christianity via Egypt proposing that Egyptian mythology was the basis for Jewish and Christian beliefs Publisher's note All-American Boy Larzer Ziff, 2012-10-01 Examines the theme of the American boy in literature citing such examples as young Washington Tom Sawyer Little Lord Fauntleroy and Holden Caulfield and explains how each character reflects the time period in which he was written The Collected Works of G.K. Chesterton Gilbert K. Chesterton, 2012-08-20 Volumes 27 through 37 are collected columns from The Illustrated London News This volume contains all of G K Chesterton s columns in The Illustrated London News from 1935 to 1936 Most of the weekly articles have never been printed in book form until Ignatius Press undertook to do the collected works Chesterton lovers will be delighted to find this treasure filled with jewels quite the match of his best writing The breadth and depth of his knowledge from history to politics to English fads and conventions never fail to impress and his wit is as refreshing as when these pieces were first written This book is the last of The Illustrated London News volumes It includes a subject index which covers all the The Illustrated London News volumes 27 37

Contractualisation of Family Law - Global Perspectives Frederik Swennen,2015-07-06 This volume presents global and comparative perspectives on the perpetual pendular movement of family law between status and contract It contributes to the topical academic debate on family law exceptionalism by exploring the blurred lines between public law private law and family law and sheds light on the many shades of grey that exist The contributions focus on both substantive and procedural family law on parents and children and on life partners with particular attention for contractual arrangements of family formations and of conflict resolution The hypothesis underlying all contributions was the trend towards contractualisation of family law A convergent research outcome resulting from the comparison of national reports was the ambivalent position of family law in legal systems worldwide That comparison shows that whereas family law is clearly moving towards contract with regard to old family formations the contrary is true for new family formations The movement towards contract is rarely considered to be contractualisation pur sang with civil effect The movement towards status finally does not necessarily witness family law exceptionalism vis vis private law in view of the increasing State interventionism in private law relations in general In sum as the volume shows the high permeability of the demarcations between the State the family and the market impedes a categorial approach This volume is based on the general and selected national reports on the topic Contractualisation of Family Law that were presented at the XIXth International Congress of Comparative Law in Vienna in July 2014
