Bad Faith And Antiracism:

Bad Faith and Antiracism Lewis Ricardo Gordon,1995 Bad Faith and Antiracism Lewis R. Gordon,2025-10-30 This is the 30th Anniversary Edition of Lewis R Gordon s classic existential phenomenological inaugural work Bad Faith and Antiracism Gordon argues that antiracism is an effort to evade the responsibilities of building a human and humane world He explores how bad faith is manifested across race gender and class among varieties of other human phenomena The new edition contains a foreword by Mabogo P More and afterwords by Jacqueline M Martinez and Paget Henry Phenomenology Dermot Moran,Lester E. Embree,2004 This set reprints the essential scholarship published in the field It includes a general introduction by the editors as well as individual volume introductions exploring and contextualising the main themes of the comprehensively covered tradition This is a key point of reference for anyone researching the phenomenological tradition Esotericism in African American Religious Experience ,2014-11-06 In Esotericism in African American Religious Experience There is a Mystery Stephen C Finley Margarita Simon Guillory and Hugh R Page Jr assemble twenty groundbreaking essays that provide a rationale and parameters for Africana Esoteric Studies AES a new trans disciplinary enterprise focused on the investigation of esoteric lore and practices in Africa and the African Diaspora The goals of this new field while akin to those of Religious Studies Africana Studies and Western Esoteric Studies are focused on the impulses that give rise to Africana Esoteric Traditions AETs and the ways in which they can be understood as loci where issues such as race ethnicity and identity are engaged and in which identity embodiment resistance and meaning are negotiated Asian Americans and the Spirit of Racial Capitalism Jonathan Tran,2022 Any serious consideration of Asian American life forces us to reframe the way we talk about racism and antiracism There are two contemporary approaches to antiracist theory and practice The first emphasizes racial identity to the exclusion of political economy making racialized life in America illegible This approach s prevalence in the academy and beyond now rises to the level of established doctrine The second approach views racial identity as the function of a particular political economy what is called racial capitalism and therefore analytically subordinates racial identity to political economy Jonathan Tran develops arguments in favor of this second approach He does so by means of an extended analysis of two case studies a Chinese migrant settlement in the Mississippi Delta 1868 1969 and the Redeemer Community Church in the Bayview Hunters Point section of San Francisco 1969 present While his analysis is focused on particular groups and persons he uses it to examine more broadly racial capitalism s processes and commitments at the sites of their structural and systemic unfolding In pursuing a research agenda that pushes beyond the narrow confines of racial identity Tran reaches back to trusted modes of analysis that have been obscured by the prevailing antiracist orthodoxy and proposes reframing antiracism in terms of a theologically salient account of political economy Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka,2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon s critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon's Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon's thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon's contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation's wretched of the earth Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti imperialist interests Throughout Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers This book in short solemnly keeps with Fanon's own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory

Shifting Corporealities in Contemporary Performance Marina Gržinić, Aneta Stojnić, 2018-10-03 This book investigates how contemporary artistic practices engage with the body and its intersection with political technological and ethical issues Departing from the relationship between corporeality and performing arts such as theater dance and performance it turns to a pluriversal understanding of embodiment that resides in the extra violent conditions of contemporary global necro capitalism in order to conduct a thorough analysis that goes beyond arts and culture It brings together theoretical academic texts by established and emerging scholars alike exposing perspectives from different fields philosophy cultural studies performance studies theater studies and dance studies as well as from different geopolitical contexts Through a series of thematic clusters the study explores the reactivation of the body as a site of a new meaning making politics

Philosophers on Race Julie K. Ward, Tommy L. Lott, 2008-04-15 Philosophers on Race adds a new dimension to current research on race theory by examining the historical roots of the concept in the works of major Western philosophers

Decolonial Aesthetics of Blackness in Contemporary Art Nkosinkulu, Zingisa, 2024-09-13 Decolonial aesthetics of Blackness in contemporary art challenge and redefine traditional narratives offering a profound critique of historical and ongoing injustices This approach emphasizes the reclamation and celebration of Black cultural identities through innovative artistic expressions that resist colonialist frameworks and oppressive stereotypes By emphasizing the experiences and perspectives of Black artists decolonial aesthetics challenge the power structures presented in art history and highlight the significance of autonomy representation and authenticity To advance this dialogue it is crucial to support and engage with Black artists and their work ensuring that their voices are amplified and their contributions are recognized within art discourse Decolonial Aesthetics of Blackness in Contemporary Art focuses on the generative audio and visual inscription of blackness as an offering of life and beauty in contemporary art It discusses the concept of blackness related to modernity decolonial aesthetics and ontology of black life and beauty This book covers topics such as decolonization visual art and sociology and is a useful resource for art historians visual artists sociologists academicians scientists and researchers

Toward a Counternarrative Theology of Race and Whiteness Christopher M. Baker, 2022-05-10 This book argues that race and whiteness are central to the construction of the modern world Constructive Theology needs to take them seriously as primary theological problems In doing so Constructive Theology must fundamentally change its approach and draw from the emerging field of Philosophy of Race Christopher M Baker develops a genealogy of race that understands whiteness as a kind secular soteriology and develops a counternarrative theological method informed by resources from Philosophy of Race He then deploys that method to read science fiction cinema and superhero stories as cultural racial and theological documents that can be critically engaged and redeployed as counternarratives to dominant racial narratives

Decolonising the Human Melissa Steyn, William Mporu, 2021-02-01 Decolonising the Human examines the ongoing project of constituting the human in light of the durability of coloniality and the persistence of multiple oppressions The human emerges as a deeply political category historically constructed as a scarce existential resource Once weaponised it allows for the social political and economic elevation of those who are centred within its magic circle and the degradation marginalisation and immiseration of those excluded as the different and inferior Other the less than human Speaking from Africa a key site where the category of the human has been used throughout European modernity to control exclude and deny equality of being the contributors use decoloniality as a potent theoretical and philosophical tool gesturing towards a liberated pluriversal world where human difference will be recognised as a gift not used to police the boundaries of the human Here is a transdisciplinary critical exploration of a wide range of subjects including history politics philosophy sociology anthropology and decolonial studies

Hicks, 2012-10-31 This work attempts to uncover the function of religion for those degraded on the basis of race Accordingly Recalibrating Spirit reveals the role of religion in critical reflection on and active protest against negative assertions about racial identity in general and the abuse of black life in particular

Decolonizing Epistemologies Ada María Isasi-Díaz, Eduardo Mendieta, 2012 This anthology gathers the work of three generations of Latina o theologians and philosopher who have taken up the task of decolonizing epistemology by transforming their respective disciplines from the standpoint liberation thought and of what has been called the decolonial turn in social theory theology and philosophy At the heart of this collection is the unveiling of subjugated knowledge elaborated by Latina o scholars who take seriously their social location and that of their communities of accountability and how these impact the development of a different episteme Refusing to continue to allow to be made invisible by the dominant discourse this group of scholars show the unsuspecting and original ways in which Latina o social and historical loci in the US are generative places for the creation of new matrixes of knowledge The book articulates a new point of departure for the self understanding of Latinas as for other marginalized and oppress groups and for all those seeking to engage the move beyond coloniality as it continues to be present in this age of globalization

La Conversation Fracturée Clanton C.W. Dawson Jr., 2017-12-14 This project is a philosophical analysis of the dominant concepts of race that prevail within contemporary American society It is the claim of this book that four main concepts attempt to answer the question what is race The four concepts are racial essentialism race as a social construct with objective status racial nihilism and race as an existential phenomenological process Each concept fails however in providing the necessary and sufficient conditions for a satisfactory concept of race and thus the project calls for a new conceptual framework for answering the question what is race
