Amber Myers is book smart and people stupid and she's tired of being invisible and dateless. Luckily her sister is a hairdresser and works at a beauty salon in Sapphire Falls. Chad Powers would rather look into a microscope than approach the only woman he's ever crushed on. He follows her to Sapphire Falls and his farm boy cousins turn him into a hunk in time for the Summer Festival. The going gets hot when both Amber and Chad get more attention than they bargained for, especially when they're voted the Festival King and Queen. This is the first scholarly work to examine the cultural significance of the talking book since the invention of the phonograph in 1877, the earliest machine to enable the reproduction of the human voice. Recent advances in sound technology make this an opportune moment to reflect on the evolution of our reading practices since this remarkable invention. Some questions addressed by the collection include: How does auditory literature adapt printed texts? What skills in close listening are necessary for its reception? What are the social consequences of new listening technologies? In sum, the essays gathered together by this collection explore the extent to which the audiobook enables us not just to hear literature but to hear it in new ways. Bringing together a set of reflections on the enrichments and impoverishments of the reading experience brought about by developments in sound technology, this collection spans the earliest adaptations of printed texts into sound by Charles Dickens, Thomas Hardy, and other novelists from the late nineteenth century to recordings by contemporary figures such as Toni Morrison and Barack Obama at the turn of the twenty-first century. As the voices gathered here suggest, it is time to give a hearing to one of the most talked-about new media of the past century. Intercepted by Love: Part Three Rachelle Ayala, Cade and Andie's love affair takes a shocking turn when both of them have obligations to people from their past. Meanwhile a rival is trying to get Cade kicked off the team and Andie's family situation takes a turn for the worse. Despite the heat between the sheets blazing hotter than ever, forces beyond their control work to rip them apart. New revelations and surprises leave Andie crushed and Cade reeling. Can Andie and Cade trust their crazy love to carry them forward or will they have to sacrifice everything they'd hoped for and leave love behind? Played by Love Rachelle Ayala, 2015-06-20
