Bad News Tour More Bad News:

More Bad News (Routledge Revivals) Peter Beharrell, Howard Davis, John Eldridge, John Hewitt, Jean Hart, Gregg Philo, Paul Walton, Brian Winston, 2009-10-15 First published in 1980 More Bad News is the Second Volume in the research findings of the Glasgow University Media Group It develops the analytic findings and methods of the first volume Bad News through a series of Case Studies of Television News Coverage and argues that much of what passes as balanced and factual news reporting is produced from a highly partial viewpoint Focusing on the British economy in crisis and its thematic linkage with the Social Contract during the first four months of 1975 the book deals with three main levels of activity the story the language and the visuals As the book unpacks each level of routine news coverage a picture emerges which has the surface appearance of neutrality and balance but is in fact highly partial and restricted Faking It Jane Roscoe, Craig Hight, 2001 This book offers the first major study of mock documentary The authors examine the relatively new form along with the association between factual codes and conventions and the discourses which underpin the genre The analysis includes detailed explorations of Woody Allen's Zelig Peter Greenaway's The Falls the Beatles spoof The Rutles as well as Bob Roberts This is Spinal Tap and Man Bites Dog Bad News/Good News Annie Bryant, 2008-06-03 Charlotte can't believe it Her father wants to move again just when the BSG really need one another Charlotte just joined the school newspaper Maeve needs help with the most important project of her life The new girl Isabel is trying to join their group and Katani's not happy about it And their adopted dog Marty needs lots of attention Can the Beacon Street Girls find some good news among the bad

No News is Bad News Michael Bromley, Hugh Stephenson, 2014-09-11 This volume of collected essays provides a wide ranging survey of the state of radio and television especially the idea of public service broadcasting and of news current affairs and documentary programming in America Australia the UK and the rest of western Europe Among the key issues it addresses are the dumbing down of TV news the infotainment factor in current affairs shows and the disappearance of the documentary Using contemporary cases and examples from the row over the scheduling of News at Ten in the UK to the creation of ABC News Online in Australia the essays link the performance of radio and television at the turn of the millennium with the processes of deregulation liberalisation and digitalisation which have been evident since the 1980s Working from a much needed and original comparative approach which encompasses complex and well established public broadcasting in the USA as well as emerging and vulnerable participatory radio stations in El Salvador the book sets a variety of experiences of factual radio and television programming within wider political and cultural contexts It offers analyses of not only the problems associated with news current affairs and documentary broadcasting in an era of a declining public service ethos and the apparent triumph of the market however The essays also explore the potential of alternative radio and television new forms of communication such as the internet and changing practices among journalists and programme makers as well as the resilience of public broadcasting and the powers of the public to ensure that the media remain relevant and accountable A companion text to the bestselling Sex Lies and Democracy The Press and the Public this volume presents a multi faceted approach to the tumultuous present and the uncertain future of news current affairs and documentary in radio and television
