Levett Gerber, Doris M. Guay, Jane Burnette, 2024-09-30 This second edition of Reaching and Teaching Students with Special Needs Through Art is written for art educators, special educators and those who value the arts for students with special needs. It builds on teachers' positive responses to the first edition and now combines over 700 years of the educational experience of arts and special educators who share their art lessons, behavior management strategies and classroom stories. The revised second edition provides updated chapters addressing students with emotional, behavioral, disabilities, learning disabilities, intellectual disabilities, physical disabilities and visual and hearing impairments. The newly revised second edition includes chapters on students with autism spectrum disorder, preschool students and students experiencing trauma. All chapters have been updated to include current definitions and language, recommended teaching strategies, art lesson adaptations, behavior management strategies and references to related chapters. Follow up activities are provided for further insights into each group of students. A new summary chapter connects how the authors' collaborations resulted in changes to two professional organizations. Since the first edition, many of the featured authors established the new Division of Visual and Performing Arts Education (DARTS) at the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) and earlier formed a new National Art Education Association (NAEA) Interest group, Special Needs in Art Education (SNAE) now Arts in Special Education (ASE). This edition is ideal for preservice arts methods courses and education courses on accessibility and inclusion at the undergraduate and graduate levels. It continues to offer current yet proven best practices for reaching and teaching this ever-important population of students through the arts.

Fostering and the Human-Animal Bond Laura A. Reese,2025-09-01 Fostering and the Human Animal Bond A Guide for Companion Animal

Foster Care Providers and Shelters delves into the profound connection between humans and animals in animal fostering. Faced with capacity challenges, shelters often struggle to maintain animal health and welfare, sometimes leading to euthanasia. By examining various facets of the fostering experience, it provides essential information to improve volunteer recruitment and retention, ultimately benefiting both the animals and those who care for them. This comprehensive guide, written by an animal welfare expert, integrates interdisciplinary research from animal behavior, welfare, volunteerism, social work, and psychology. The book explores methods to enhance the emotional well-being of foster volunteers, their coping mechanisms, and the overall welfare of the animals, making it an invaluable resource for shelter professionals, foster coordinators, researchers, and students in related fields. With its practical advice and insights to support and improve the fostering experience, it highlights the practical applications of research into the human-animal bond for shelter animal welfare. It improves accessibility of research findings and visual models for academic and professional audiences. Provides links to programs recommended for implementation by animal shelters and rescues.

Helping Humans One Animal at a Time Meg Harrison, 2013-05-02

I'll give you half a million dollars for the rest of that bottle. Every visit to my friend's house was crazy with 3 dogs jumping, barking, and acting wild. All I have to do is spray them with these Flower Essences, and they will settle down. I said, "She burst out laughing at me, the little bottle, and my big promise. Wait 3 minutes." I said, "while spraying." She checked her watch. In 2 minutes, the German Shepherd and the Border Collie were lying down, and the unruly Jack Russell Chihuahua was quietly chewing on one of his toys. What would you pay for Peace and Quiet? There is no substitute for patience, positive training, and understanding, but sometimes we simply need to pull the lamp closer to get a better look at the cause of their discontent, to illuminate, see from a different angle, helping your animal overcome problematic behaviors, attitudes, and emotions.
