Orlov, 2023-07-24 The book represents an in depth investigation of acquisition cultivation and transmission of divine mysteries in Jewish apocalyptic and mystical accounts by focusing on the developments found in early Enochic writings These accounts deal both with revelations unveiled by God and angels to the patriarch Enoch and with illicit transmission of divine knowledge by the rogue group of the fallen angels known as the Watchers Orlov argues that the map of otherworldly knowledge revealed to Enoch inversely mirrors the map of illicit revelations given by the fallen Watchers to humankind The study suggests that one of the possible objectives for the parallelism is that by revealing to Enoch the same divine mysteries that were earlier transmitted by the Watchers God attempts to mitigate the corruption caused by the fallen angels illicit instructions This book will be of interest not only for scholars specializing in historical and religious areas but also for experts in the fields of anthropology philosophy sociology psychology and gender theory it discusses several aspects of early and late Jewish religious epistemologies that elucidate the ideological context for the construction and affirmation of social roles and identities in various Jewish milieus Animals and their Relation to Gods, Humans and Things in the Ancient World Raija Mattila, Sanae Ito, Sebastian Fink, 2019-03-11 While Human Animal Studies is a rapidly growing field in modern history studies on this topic that focus on the Ancient World are few The present volume aims at closing this gap It investigates the relation between humans animals gods and things with a special focus on the structure of these categories An improved understanding of the ancient categories themselves is a precondition for any investigation into the relation between them The focus of the volume lies on the Ancient Near East but it also provides studies on Ancient Greece Asia Minor Mesoamerica the Far East and Arabia
