Ann Veronica Janbens A Different Image In Each Eye:

Visual Culture: What is visual culture studies? Joanne Morra, Marquard Smith, 2006 These texts represent both the formation of visual culture and the ways in which it has transformed and continues to transform our understanding and experience of the world as a visual domain

Exploding Aesthetics, 2021-11-08 Today many visual artists are giving the cold shoulder to the static isolated concept of visual art and searching instead for novel dynamic connections to different image strategies Because of that visual art and aesthetics are both forced to reconsider their current positions and their traditional apparatus of concepts In that process many questions surface To mention a few Could the characteristics of an artistic image and its specific manner of signification be determined in a world which is entirely aesthetisized What would be the consequences of a variety of image strategies for aesthetic experience Would it be possible to develop a form of cultural criticism by means of artistic activities in a culture awash in images In order to answer such questions aesthetics as a philosophy of art needs to transform its field into a critical philosophy of topical visual culture As an impetus to such a reinterpretation of the visual working area the L B Series organized three symposia evenings under the title Exploding Aesthetics in cooperation with De Appel Center for Contemporary Art Amsterdam Besides the presentations and discussions from these symposia this volume includes various arguments positions and statements in both articles and interviews by a variety of visual artists designers advertising professionals theorists and curators The participants are Mieke Bal Annette W Balkema Peg Brand Experimental Jetset Liam Gillick Jeanne van Heeswijk Martin Jay KesselsKramer Friedrich Kittler Maria Lind Wim Michels Nicholas Mirzoeff Planet Art Joke Robaard Annemieke Roobeek Remko Scha Rob Schr der Henk Slager Richard Shusterman Pauline Terreehorst Wolfgang Welsch and Marie Lou Witmer

Travelling Concepts in the Humanities Mieke Bal, 2002-11-02 Attempting to bridge the gap between specialised scholarship in the humanistic disciplines and an interdisciplinary project of cultural analysis Mieke Bal has written an intellectual travel guide that charts the course beyond cultural studies As with any guide it can be used in a number of ways and the reader can follow or willfully ignore any of the paths it maps or signposts Bal's focus for this book is the idea that interdisciplinarity in the humanities necessary exciting serious must seek its heuristic and methodological basis in concepts rather than its methods Concepts are not grids to put over an object The counterpart of any given concept is the cultural text or work or thing that constitutes the object of analysis No concept is meaningful for cultural analysis unless it helps us to understand the object better on its own terms Bal offers the reader a sustained theoretical reflection on how to do cultural analysis through a tentative practice of doing just that This offers a concrete practice to theoretical constructs and allows the proposed method more accessibility Please note illustrations have been removed from the ebook at the request of the rightsholder Endless Andness Mieke Bal,2013-11-01 In Endless Andness Mieke Bal pioneers a new understanding of the political potential of abstract art which does not passively yield its meaning to the viewer but creates it anew an art perceived not only through the retina but experienced viscerally In this book the third of her companion volumes on art's political agency Bal explores perception through an intense engagement with the work of Belgian sculptor Ann Veronica Janssens In a series of vividly recalled encounters with Janssens's practice over a number of years Bal presents a new conception of embodied perception art experienced in a body conjured into participation and transformed by the experience From Janssens's mist room works and the CorpsNoir sculptures through to the fugitive porous Aerogel Bal traces an art which eludes the subject object distinction to alter our ideas about the potential of political art in abstract and figurative forms Enticing us simultaneously to lose ourselves and to come home the tenuous materiality of installation art empowers those who live in the permanently lost and migratory condition that characterizes contemporary experience In celebrating and interrogating the work of this prolific and innovative artist Mieke Bal transforms our understanding of non representational art to create a new awareness of perception and performance in the shared spaces of our world In(ter)discipline Gillian Beer,Beate Perrey,Malcolm Bowie,2017-12-02 Interdisciplinarity has dynamised the Modern Humanities like no other recent academic trend Yet this presents serious challenges involving both translation and affect how can we transmit facts and interpretations sense and sensations between disciplines between different artistic media between cultures between the private and the public sphere What are the advantages the difficulties and risks Another challenge concerns language if single disciplines have produced their own technologies of reading and writing this book examines and breaks the routine to propose alternative languages Some of the most distinctive voices in criticism both established and upcoming from literature music the visual arts psychoanalysis and philosophy amongst others show here their commitment to comparative thinking The challenge has been to reach beyond the jargon and the epistemological constraints of individual disciplines while remaining coherent and incisive The outcome successfully reveals new links between different forms of cultural expression Gillian Beer English Literature Science Writing Malcolm Bowie French Literature Psychoanalysis and Beate Perrey Music Poetry Psychoanalysis are the instigators of the interdisciplinary research project New Languages for Criticism Cross Currents and Resistances which since 2002 has been under the auspices of CRASSH the Centre for Research in the Arts Social Sciences and Humanities at the University of Cambridge O corpo e a imagem no discurso Simone Tiemi Hashiguti,2019-01-01 O interesse pelo corpo e pela imagem como objetos de análise e
