Anna And The Fighter The House On The Hill:

Unlocked Memories Alexey Vinogradov, Albert Pleysier, 2012-07-10 Unlocked Memories is a collection of memories that were shared by Russians who witnessed the German invasion of the Leningrad region in 1941 All were children or young people during World War Two and nearly all were natives of Luga Oredezkh or villages that were clustered around these two towns Each lived under German rule after the Leningrad region was overrun and occupied by the enemy The authors collected these memories over a period of ten years Many of the memories had been locked away for decades some to spare others from embarrassment some for reasons that concerned the subject's welfare of the welfare of a relative or friend and others because it was too painful to reflect upon them All were recorded chronologically and have been placed within a historical narrative Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
