Anna On The Farm:

Anna on the Farm Mary Downing Hahn, 2001-03-19 Anna is thrilled when she receives an invitation to leave hot sticky Baltimore and visit her aunt and uncle on their farm where she'll be able to go barefoot swim in the pond and drink fresh squeezed lemonade But when she arrives she's greeted by an unpleasant surprise her uncle's nephew Theodore who delights in teasing her mercilessly about her city ways Anna refuses to let Theodore get the best of her though and in a series of suspenseful adventures and hilarious mishaps she proves that she isn't just a city slicker after all In this lively sequel to Anna All Year Round award winning author Mary Downing Hahn again draws on her own mother's childhood experiences just before World War I The result is a gathering of humorous heartwarming episodes filled with both the delights and difficulties that have always accompanied the journey of growing up

Anna Gill Davies, 1998-01 In each of these poems Gill Davies has captured a moment in childhood a little spot in time as Anna grows up with her brother Jack

Growing Up Country: A Demlow Family History Carl W. Demlow, 2021-05-13 Growing Up Country A Demlow Family History By Carl Demlow Growing Up Country A Demlow Family History is the result of fifteen years of research travel to several states and many hours of writing and rewriting It began with the simple goal of providing our children and grandchildren with a short history of the Demlow family and specifically the author's experiences on the family farm in the 1950s But it didn't end there the book took on a life of its own as it grew to include the Moeller Ganun and Roekle families as well as historical tidbits from the 1880s to the present

Anna Madgigine Jai Kingsley Daniel L. Schafer, 2018-03-01 Anna Kingsley's life story adds a dramatic chapter to histories of the South the state of Florida and the African Diaspora Both an American slave and a slaveowner and possibly an African princess Anna was captured as a teenager in Senegal in 1806 and sold into slavery Zephaniah Kingsley Jr a planter and slave trader from Spanish East Florida bought her in Havana and took her to his St Johns River plantation where she soon became his household manager his wife and eventually the mother of four of his children

Angels in My Valley Adeline Kulig Puccini, 2002-01-03 This narrative documentary portrays the life of a thirteen year old girl who breaks out of an abusive environment by escaping the grasp of a tyrannical stepmother who had victimized her and seven of her siblings for many years Except for the people who made her escape possible she was essentially on her own as she worked her way through high school After working for a year as a private secretary in a civil service position she was encouraged to apply for a scholarship to the University of Illinois A second scholarship and a secretarial position at the university made it possible for her to acquire a bachelors degree in speech pathology and to graduate debt free in four years She continued her education during a busy career and earned a masters degree in speech and language pathology from Northwestern University By rising above what she considered to be a lost childhood she manages to have a successful career along with marriage and a family

It appears that this author never looked down after leaving a childhood of abuse compounded by the problems of the Great Depression Those who encouraged her along the way are acknowledged as the angels in her life Through these special mentors she meets movie stars and Hollywood moguls in the west and through her marriage to a naval officer she meets military and foreign dignitaries in Washington D C Throughout this story success and happiness in this family are often eclipsed by poignant periods of sadness but only to rise again as their upbeat spirits prevail Although the author is the central figure in this memoir her eight siblings contribute immensely to the central theme of this story the will to survive and succeed They beat the odds against the oft quoted premise that growing up in violence will perpetuate violence This story was written to provide insight into the problem of child abuse Along with this moving commentary and narration helpful information is provided for everyone working with children and young adults laymen and professionals alike

Between 1946 and 1966 large numbers of displaced persons DPs came to Australia to escape the horrors of war torn Europe Peter Brune s latest work had its genesis in more than 40 interviews he conducted with DPs in the period 2001 2022 He spoke to migrants from Latvia Estonia Lithuania Ukraine Czechoslovakia Poland Serbia Croatia Slovenia Germany the Netherlands Italy Greece and Hungary Inspired by their resilience their enterprise and their determination to make a new life for themselves in Australia the author has written about their harrowing war experiences drawing largely on their own words their reception in Australia and their first responses to an alien culture Their subsequent reflections on the journeys they undertook and how they fared here are both moving and revelatory Peter also analyses the Chifley government s immigration policies which were driven by Arthur Calwell and the selection criteria that were applied to assess applicants Both Chifley and Calwell saw the need for a greater population for economic and security reasons but they also felt an obligation to alleviate the deprivations suffered by millions of Europeans Suffering Redemption and Triumph is an extraordinary exposition of how mass postwar immigration created the modern multicultural society in which we now live Peter makes the case that it is one of the most significant periods in the Australian story

Who could have known that this girl child seeded in a little cabin at a Columbine resort on her mothers honeymoon would carry stardust in her veins from a stellar system so very far away in the universe It would have been impossible at that time for anyone to know that in this mortal flesh walked an entity of high spiritual esteem My mother named me Diana after the goddess of the hunt the forest and the beloved moonwhich is merely 250 thousand miles away Precious precious and set aside kept safe for these days I was tenderly wrapped in mythology and poetry and tucked in nightly by my mother who showed me the moon and the man who lived there This magical lady told me her firstborn that I was made of moonbeams and stardust There is no doubt in my mind that I was programmed by Lorines love of poetry and stories Her childlike belief in the truth of fairytales and the magic of rhyme and words strung together like precious jewels in a royal necklace was impressed into my DNA This caused certain dendrons to lie down and give way to those that would stand tall and carry verse and prose through my soul like a great river I have kept my promise to Lorine I have written her story The Cowgirl Princess and Starwalker using her collection of journals and photographs and of course I wove it all together with my own especially special collection of memories and lots and lots of stardust and tears Catalog of
