Gene Allen

Anna Zenger Mother Of Freedom:

Anna Zenger, Mother of Freedom Kent Cooper, 1946 The Rotarian , 1947-02 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Perspectives on Mass Communication History Wm. David Sloan, 2013-11-05 This unique volume is based on the philosophy that the teaching of history should emphasize critical thinking and attempt to involve the student intellectually rather than simply provide names dates and places to memorize The book approaches history not as a cut and dried recitation of a collection of facts but as multifaceted discipline In examining the various perspectives historians have provided the author brings a vitality to the study of history that students normally do not gain The text is comprised of 24 historiographical essays each of which discusses the major interpretations of a significant topic in mass communication history Students are challenged to evaluate each approach critically and to develop their own explanations As a textbook designed specifically for use in graduate level communication history courses it should serve as a stimulating pedagogical tool Guide to the Study of United States Imprints George Thomas Tanselle, 1971

Dead Men's Propaganda Terhi Rantanen, 2024-05-07 In Dead Men's Propaganda Ideology and Utopia in Comparative Communications Studies Terhi Rantanen investigates the shaping of early comparative communications research between the 1920s and 1950s notably the work of academics and men of practice in the United States Often neglected this intellectual thread is highly relevant to understanding the 21st century's challenges of war and rival streams of propaganda Borrowing her conceptual lenses from Karl Mannheim and Robert Merton Rantanen draws on detailed archival research and case studies to analyse the extent and importance of work outside and inside the academy illuminating the work of pioneers in the field Some of these were well known academics such as Harold Lasswell and the authors of the seminal book Four Theories of the Press Others operated in the world of news agencies such as Associated Press's Kent Cooper or were marginalised as migr scholars notably Paul Kecskemeti and Nathan Leites Her study shows how comparative communications from its very beginning can be understood as governed by the Mannheimian concepts of ideology and utopia and the power play between them The close relationship between these two concepts resulted in a bias in knowledge production contributed to dominant narratives of generational conflicts and to the demarcation of Insiders and Outsiders By focusing on a generation at the forefront of comparative communications at this pivotal time in the 20th century this book challenges orthodoxies in the intellectual histories of communication studies Mr. Associated Press Gene Allen, 2023-06-20 Finalist for the AEJMC Tankard Book Award Between 1925 and 1951 Kent Cooper transformed the Associated Press making it the world's dominant news agency while changing the kind of journalism that millions of readers in the United States and other countries relied on Gene Allen's biography is a globe spanning account of how Cooper led and reshaped the most important institution in

American and eventually international journalism in the mid twentieth century Allen critically assesses the many new approaches and causes that Cooper championed introducing celebrity news and colorful features to a service previously known for stodgy reliability pushing through disruptive technological innovations like the instantaneous transmission of news photos and leading a crusade to bring American style press freedom inseparable from private ownership in Cooper's view to every country His insistence on truthfulness and impartiality presents a sharp contrast to much of today's fractured journalistic landscape Deeply researched and engagingly written Mr Associated Press traces Cooper's career as he built a new foundation for the modern AP and shaped the twentieth century world of news New York Historical Society

Quarterly New-York Historical Society, 1947 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1966 Going Dutch - Gone American Christian Gellinek, 2003 Justice Denoted Terry White, 2003-09-30 White provides the most comprehensive scholarly compilation of fictional work of legal suspense in existence Primarily a bibliography of novels it also annotates plays scripts for film and television novelizations and short story collections about lawyers and the law The idea behind the principal of selection is to disdain labels that reduce the variety of the legal thriller to a subgenre of mystery fiction Novels that range from suspense thrillers through science fiction to the philosophical novel are included if justice is thematically important It is therefore an eclectic reference source beyond a compilation of books about lawyers as protagonists Its biographical and scholarly information about authors major and minor and their novels or works is traditionally encyclopedic and objective regardless of whether the work has been genre defined or worse deified as a classic or denigrated as a bestseller Many novels included are long out of print but historically interesting for their contribution to the lineage of the courtroom drama showing that the history of the legal thriller is one of the major branches of modern literature since the Age of Reason The criterion of justice denoted moves beyond the fact of lawyers and courtrooms to select seminal novels like Robert Travers Anatomy of a Murder as well as the romantic potboiler Among the more than 2 000 works are the Perry Mason novels of Erle Stanley Gardner John Mortimer's Rumpole series along with a staple of fiction by major authors of the genre like John Lescroart Lisa Scottoline Margaret Maron Scott Turow and John Grisham There are also individual works by Shakespeare Goethe Kafka Camus and Twain delineating humanity's obsession with the law as its shining prop of civilization and alternative b te noire of the common individual caught up in its maw The appendices include comments by lawyer novelist Michael A Kahn a historical introduction to the legal thriller craft notes by writers and prominent trial lawyers responding to author and lawyer questionnaires bibliography of critical sources and articles series characters and the legal terminology found in courtroom dramas and novels An essential reference tool for scholars researchers as well as the occasional reader of legal thrillers Portrait of an American City Joan Zlotnick, 1982 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
