Anna Weib:

Imagining the Witch Laura Kounine, 2018 The Holy Roman Empire was the heartland of the witch craze with around 23 000 witches executed in the early modern period In this book Laura Kounine uses case studies of witch trials in early modern Wurttemberg to examine how people sought to identify witches and the ways in which ordinary men and women fought for their life to avoid the stake

The Nightmare Considered Nancy Anisfield, 1991 These essays assess the nature of nuclear war literature from a variety of perspectives Scholars activists novelists poets and teachers challenge nuclear ideologies and traditional readings of apocalyptic texts Included Holocaust literature of the 1950s Michael Dorris and Louise Erdrich poetry and nuclear war Riddley Walker Fiskadoro haiku and Hiroshima Kopit s End of the World O Brien s The Nuclear Age and Vonnegut s cataclysmic novels

The Weavers of Trautenau Janine Holc, 2023-10-16 A sympathetic history that focuses on the experiences of women and girls during the Holocaust and draws on new archival sources Beginning in late 1940 over three thousand Jewish girls and young women were forced from their family homes in Sosnowiec Poland and its surrounding towns to worksites in Germany Believing that they were helping their families to survive these young people were thrust into a world where they labored at textile work for twelve hours a day lived in barracks with little food and received only periodic news of events back home By late 1943 their barracks had been transformed into concentration camps where they were held until liberation in 1945 Using a fresh approach to testimony collections Janine P Holc reconstructs the forced labor experiences of young Jewish females as told by the women who survived and shared their testimony Incorporating new source material the book carefully constructs survivors stories while also taking a theoretical approach one alert to socially constructed intersectional systems of exploitation and harm The Weavers of Trautenau elucidates the limits and possibilities of social relations inside camps and the challenges of moral and emotional repair in the face of indescribable loss during the Holocaust

The Mayor's Message with Accompanying Documents, to the Municipal Assembly of the City of St. Louis ... Saint Louis (Mo.), 1890 The Long Road Home David J. Toynton, 2024-05-24 This narrative unfolds the life of Ernst a young German soldier during World War II caught at the crossroads of duty and family loyalty stretched between Germany and England At nineteen Ernst navigates the tumult of his own moral dilemmas against the backdrop of a war torn landscape accompanied by an officer who has vowed to see him safely home As we journey through the pages we re drawn into the visceral experiences of war torn Germany Nightly as Ernst and his comrades traverse the roads under the cover of darkness the ominous hum of bombers overhead is palpable each man acutely aware that their loved ones are in the crosshairs In the daybreak s light the crimson hue of their burning cities stains the horizon a constant reminder of the devastation being wrought upon their homeland The story doesn t shy away from the shared fear and terror that grips both German and

American soldiers delving into the harrowing plight of US troops captured and held as prisoners of war Despite the hospital s eerie quiet indicating few casualties are being brought in the war s end in 1945 doesn t immediately herald peace for Ernst and his comrades It s not until four years later that they can finally part ways Returning to a country he can call home Ernst confronts the suspicion and distrust from those around him It is during this turbulent time that he meets a young woman who helps to heal the bitterness of war Together they embark on a life filled with hope leaving the shadows of the past behind as they step into a shared future

In the Mountains and On the River Gabriel Groszman,2017-02-09 In the Mountains and On the River chronicles the history of the Slovak Jews between 1848 and 1945 It is based on an in depth historical investigation by the author Gabriel Groszman numerous memoirs by members of his extended families and documents obtained from historical institutes in Slovakia Italy Israel and the United States The narrative takes us through the successive periods of the Habsburg Empire the Austro Hungarian Monarchy democratic Czechoslovakia and the fascist Slovak Republic culminating in the destruction of Jewish life in Slovakia during the Holocaust The multi generational family histories reflect the shared destiny of Slovak Jewry and their achievements in spite of discrimination followed by open persecution leading to exile death or in the case of a fortunate minority survival The stories of several families come to life through the written and verbal accounts of the survivors and descendents of people murdered during the Holocaust

Ferruccio Busoni and the Ontology of the Musical Work Erinn Elizabeth Knyt,2010 Ferruccio Busoni s conception of the musical work derives from his multiple roles as performer aesthetician editor composer arranger and intellectual Drawing on unpublished scores manuscripts sketches and documents from the Staatsbibliothek in Berlin concert programs from a private collection in Berkeley acoustic recordings information about Busoni s intellectual interests gleaned from an auction catalogue featuring the contents of his extensive library and the published aesthetic writings letters and compositions the present study offers the first comprehensive account of Busoni s work concept By establishing connections between his ideas and his musical practice it explores and clarifies the reasoning behind his idiosyncratic compositional style a style characterized by a blurring of boundaries between original and borrowed material Polystylistic mixtures of the old and new and a distinctive performance style in which Busoni creatively altered and embellished existing texts exemplify his practice in an age in thrall to Werktreue when originality of idea was prized above all else
