Anne Francis ,1974      Anne Francis: An Autobiography ,2007      Anne Francis Laura Wagner,2011-08-12 This first ever biography of American actress Anne Francis will enlighten her casual fans and earn a nod of agreement from her diehard admirers The star of such 1950s cinematic classics as Bad Day at Black Rock Blackboard Jungle and Forbidden Planet Anne made the risky decision to transplant her talents to television and as a result her acting has often been taken for granted But TV supplied her with the groundbreaking title role in Honey West 1965-66 where she became the first leading actress to portray a private detective on a regular weekly series All of Anne Francis film and television appearances are chronicled including a full episode guide for Honey West and a complete listing of her guest roles on such series as The Twilight Zone The Untouchables and Murder She Wrote      Anne Francis Florence Bird,1974      The Satellite Sex Barbara M. Freeman,2001-05-02 Citing a lack of strong feminist voices in contemporary Canadian media Freeman journalism Carleton U Ottawa was motivated to write this first book length analysis of news media coverage of women's issues in Canada The period 1966-1971 is seen as a critical period in Canadian feminist history during which time the Canadian government appointed a federal inquiry into women's issues the Royal Commission on the Status of Women Freeman examines the relationship between the Commission and the media the reporters' understandings of professional practice and the ways in which they covered issues from the hearings and the Commission's Report She argues that an understanding of media coverage of gender issues in the past may lead to thoughtful and effective coverage now and in the future Accessible to a general audience c Book News Inc      The Literature of Emigration and Exile James Whitlark,Wendell M. Aycock,1992 The Literature of Emigration and Exile is a collection of works from various writers that explore the literature of emigration and exile These writers examine poetic fictional and biographical voices from settings such as Turkey renaissance Italy modern Spain Central and South America Eastern Europe China Canada and elsewhere      Mapping Our Selves Helen M. Buss,1994 In Mapping Our Selves Helen Buss considers a broad range of autobiographical works written by Canadian women including memoirs journals and conventional autobiography as well as experiments in blending a number of writing genres She constructs her own mapping theory of how female identity is formed in order to illustrate how identity can be understood through the relationship between writer text and reader      Royal Observations Arthur Bousfield,Garry Toffoli,1991-01-12 These observations and quotations comprise a witty anthology of anecdotes by and about the royal family in Canada over the last 400 years Enhanced by drawings from the well known cartoonist Vince Wicks this book looks at the memorable encounters sometimes touching sometimes disconcerting sometimes hilarious that Canadians have had with their own and other royal families Arranged thematically Royal Observations covers such topics as Queen Victoria English French relations World War Two native peoples and royal tours      ,      Beyond Bylines Barbara M. Freeman,2012-08-01 Beyond Bylines Media Workers and Women's Rights in Canada explores the ways in which several of Canada's women journalists broadcasters and other media workers reached well beyond the glory of their personal bylines to advocate for the most controversial women's rights of their eras. To do so, some of them adopted conventional feminine identities while others refused to conform altogether, openly and defiantly challenging the gender expectations of their day. The book consists of a series of case studies of the women in question as they grappled with the concerns close to their hearts: higher education for women, healthy dress reforms, the vote, equal opportunities at work, abortion, lesbianism, and Aboriginal women's rights. Their media reflected their respective eras: intellectual magazines, daily and weekly newspapers, radio, feminist public relations, alternative women's periodicals, and documentary film made for television. Barbara Freeman takes an interdisciplinary approach, combining biography, history, and communication studies to demonstrate how their use of different media both enabled and limited these women in their ability to be daring advocates for gender equality. She shows how a number of these women were linked through the generations by their memberships in activist women's organizations.
