Citizenship Education in Germany Stephanie Wilde, 2004-01-01 This volume focuses on cross curricular and extra curricular activities within the broader context of citizenship education in secondary schools in Germany It sets out the background and history of citizenship education in Germany before moving on to selected case studies of specific activities in secondary schools in different federal states in eastern and western Germany These case studies focus on activities centred on two main topics intercultural education and the National Socialist period in Germany These activities are not part of formal schooling but rather represent examples of young people and teachers engaging in citizenship education beyond the classroom or in a positive sense not doing it by the book The Life of Anne Frank Laura Saari, 2022-10-29 Who was Anne Frank Why is she famous What happened to her This book is a perfect introduction for young readers to the life and diary of Anne Frank The topics covered include Anne s family history the rise of Nazism her time in hiding and what she wrote about in her famous diary Anne Frank s inspiring and important story is told in a concise and touching manner that is accessible to all Jews and Jewish Education in Germany Today Eliezer Ben-Rafael, Olaf Glöckner, Yitzhak Sternberg, 2011-02-14 In the context of their recent dispersion Russian speaking Jews have become the vast majority of Germany s longstanding Jewry An entity marked by permeable boundaries they show commitment to world Jewry including Israel but feeble identification with their hosts While Jewish singularity is understood here more as belonging than believing Jewish education is viewed as a must Citizenship Education and Global Migration James A. Banks, 2017-06-23 This groundbreaking book describes theory research and practice that can be used in civic education courses and programs to help students from marginalized and minoritized groups in nations around the world attain a sense of structural integration and political efficacy within their nation states develop civic participation skills and reflective cultural national and global identities Making German Jewish Literature Anew Katja Garloff, 2022-12-06 In Making German Jewish Literature Anew Katja Garloff traces the emergence of a new Jewish literature in Germany and Austria from 1990 to the present The rise of new generations of authors who identify as both German and Jewish and who often sustain additional affiliations with places such as France Russia or Israel affords a unique opportunity to analyze the foundational moments of diasporic literature Making German Jewish Literature Anew is structured around a series of founding gestures performing authorship remaking memory and claiming places Garloff contends that these founding gestures are literary strategies that reestablish the very possibility of a German Jewish literature several decades after the Holocaust Making German Jewish Literature Anew offers fresh interpretations of second generation authors such as Maxim Biller Doron Rabinovici and Barbara Honigmann as well as of third generation authors many of whom come from Eastern European and or mixed religion backgrounds These more recent writers include Benjamin Stein Lena Gorelik and Katja Petrowskaja Throughout the book Garloff asks what exactly marks a given text as Jewish the author s identity intended audience thematic concerns or stylistic choices and reflects on existing definitions of Jewish literature Weimar and Nazi Germany Fiona Reynoldson,1996 Education Pack Pat Brander,Rui Gomes,Council of Europe,2004-01-01 This publication updates the 1995 edition as an educational resource for the European youth campaign against racism anti semitism xenophobia and intolerance It provides a reference source for those involved in intercultural education and training with young people in Europe and beyond The pack itself offers a series of different methodologies including role plays simulation exercises case studies and cooperative group work which can be adapted by trainers teachers and youth workers in their educational programmes In Pursuit of German Memory Wulf Kansteiner,2006 Wulf Kansteiner shows that the interpretations of Germany s past proposed by historians politicians and television makers reflect political and generational divisions and an extraordinary concern for Germany s perception abroad Teaching German in Twentieth-century America David P. Benseler,Craig W. Nickisch,Cora Lee Nollendorfs,2001 Teaching a foreign language and culture is always a challenge but it has been especially problematic to teach the German language and culture in the United States in the twentieth century The tradition of Germany s great poets and thinkers of the past has been joined by a starker legacy Through explorations of such topics as the world wars the Holocaust women in the language teaching profession Jewish contributions and technology s impact on scholarship this volume inspects the fascination and frustrating relationships of the two cultures as they interact through the teaching of German in American educational systems from small liberal arts colleges to large and famous universities This volume resulted from a conference Shaping Forces in American Germanics held in Madison Wisconsin in September 1996 The Diary of a Anne Frank Anne Frank,1999-07 Journal of a Jewish teenager describes the joys and torments of daily life and typical adolescent thoughts throughout two years spent in hiding with her family during the Nazi occupation of Holland Holocaust Icons Oren Baruch Stier,2015-11-01 The Holocaust has bequeathed to contemporary society a cultural lexicon of intensely powerful symbols a vocabulary of remembrance that we draw on to comprehend the otherwise incomprehensible horror of the Shoah Engagingly written and illustrated with more than forty black and white images Holocaust Icons probes the history and memory of four of these symbolic relics left in the Holocaust s wake Jewish studies scholar Oren Stier offers in this volume new insight into symbols and the symbol making process as he traces the lives and afterlives of certain remnants of the Holocaust and their ongoing impact Stier focuses in particular on four icons the railway cars that carried Jews to their deaths symbolizing the mechanics of murder the Arbeit Macht Frei work makes you free sign over the entrance to Auschwitz pointing to the insidious logic of the camp system the number six million that represents an approximation of the number of Jews killed as well as mass murder more generally and the persona of Anne Frank associated with victimization Stier shows how and why these icons an object a phrase a number and a person have come to stand in for the Holocaust where they came from and how they have been used and reproduced how they are presently at risk from a variety of threats such as commodification and what the future holds for the memory of the Shoah In illuminating these icons of the Holocaust Stier offers valuable new perspective on one of the defining events of the twentieth century He helps readers understand not only the Holocaust but also the profound nature of historical memory itself Marginal Voices, Marginal Forms Rachael Langford, Russell West-Pavlov, 1999 Diaristic writing has often been relegated to the fringes of literary studies as a marginal cultural activity This volume seeks to challenge that marginality by exploring some of the wide ranging forms of literary practice encompassed by diaristic writing in Europe from the Renaissance to the present day The volume deals with questions of the value and status of the diary of the functioning of the diary in society and history and of the reception and interpretation of the multifarious forms of first person daily writing The volume investigates diaries across national borders and linguistic boundaries so as to make the hitherto marginal place of the private journal a site of fruitful interdisciplinary encounters Australian British Catalanian French German and Italian critics examine diaries dating from the sixteenth to the twentieth century within the context of the literature history and literary history of Catalonia England France Germany and Italy A prime concern of the essays in this collection is to highlight the cultural generic and historical diversity of the diary while emphasising the points of convergence between different texts and differing critical approaches to the texts The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of European and comparative literature As the Witnesses Fall Silent: 21st Century Holocaust Education in Curriculum, Policy and Practice Zehavit Gross, E. Doyle Stevick, 2015-03-16 This volume represents the most comprehensive collection ever produced of empirical research on Holocaust education around the world It comes at a critical time as the world observes the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz We are now at a turning point as the generations that witnessed and survived the Shoah are slowly passing on Governments are charged with ensuring that this defining event of the 20th century takes its rightful place in the schooling and the historical consciousness of their peoples The policies and practices of Holocaust education around the world are as diverse as the countries that grapple with its history and its meaning Educators around the globe struggle to reconcile national histories and memories with the international realities of the Holocaust and its implications for the present These efforts take place at a time when scholarship about the Holocaust itself has made great strides In this book these issues are framed by some of the leading voices in the field including Elie Wiesel and Yehuda Bauer and then explored by many distinguished scholars who represent a wide range of expertise Holocaust education is of such significance so rich in meaning so powerful in content and so diverse in practice that the need for extensive high quality empirical research is critical Th is book provides exactly that The International status of education about the Holocaust Carrier, Peter, Fuchs, Eckhardt, Messinger, Torben, Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research (Germany), 2015-01-14 How do schools worldwide treat the Holocaust as a subject In which countries does the Holocaust form part of classroom teaching Are representations of the Holocaust always accurate balanced and unprejudiced in curricula and textbooks This study carried out by UNESCO and the Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research compares for the first time representations of the Holocaust in school textbooks and national curricula Drawing on data which includes countries in which there exists no or little information about representations of the Holocaust the study shows where the Holocaust is established in official guidelines and contains a close textbook study focusing on the comprehensiveness and accuracy of representations and historical narratives The book highlights evolving practices worldwide and thus provides education stakeholders with comprehensive documentation about current trends in curricula directives and textbook representations of the Holocaust It further formulates recommendations that will help policy makers provide the educational means by which pupils may develop Holocaust literacy

Victimhood Nationalism Jie-Hyun Lim,2025-04-01 Nationalism today depends on the perception of victimhood The historical memory of past suffering endows nationalist movements with political legitimacy and a sense of moral superiority Koreans recall Japanese colonial atrocities while Japan commemorates the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Israel sanctifies the Holocaust and Poland trumpets the Nazi and Soviet occupations Even Germany and Russia perpetrators of historical crimes today cast themselves as victims by pointing to national suffering In this theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich book Jie Hyun Lim offers a new way to understand nationalism and its political instrumentalization of suffering developing the concept of victimhood nationalism and exploring it in a range of global settings He examines relations among Poland Germany Israel Korea and Japan focusing on how memories of colonialism the Holocaust and Stalinist terror have converged and intertwined in transnational spaces With an emphasis on memory formation Lim scrutinizes how perpetrators in Germany and Japan transformed themselves into victims as well as how nationalists in Poland Korea and Israel portray themselves as hereditary victims in order to rebut external criticism He considers the construction of nations as victims and perpetrators tracing the interaction of history and memory Ultimately the book contends challenging victimhood nationalism is necessary to overcome the endless competition over national suffering and instead promote reconciliation mutual understanding and transnational solidarity
