Montgomery 1874-1942 was a Canadian author best known for a series of novels beginning with Anne of Green Gables. Montgomery went on to publish 20 novels as well as 530 short stories, 500 poems and 30 essays. The L.M. Montgomery Reader Benjamin Lefebvre, 2013-12-11 Now available in paperback The L M Montgomery Reader assembles rediscovered primary material on one of Canada's most enduringly popular authors spanning the entirety of her high profile career and the years since her death. The first volume A Life in Print focuses specifically on Montgomery's role as a public celebrity and author of the resoundingly successful Anne of Green Gables 1908. The selections give a strong impression of Montgomery as a writer and cultural critic as she discusses a range of topics with wit, wisdom and humour including the natural landscape of Prince Edward Island, her wide readership, anxieties about modernity and the continued relevance of old ideals. These essays and interviews joined by a number of additional pieces that discuss her work's literary and cultural value in relation to an emerging canon of Canadian literature make up nearly one hundred selections in all. Each volume in The L M Montgomery Reader is accompanied by an extensive introduction and detailed commentary by leading Montgomery scholar Benjamin Lefebvre that traces the interplay between the author and the critic as well as between the private and the public.

Touring Beyond the Nation: A Transnational Approach to European Tourism History

Eric G.E. Zuelow, 2016-12-05 When tourists travel they often seek the exotic The farther they venture the more unique the cultures they gaze upon the greater the prestige accrued cross cultural contact is commonplace Yet despite the obviously transnational character of the tourist experience national borders define existing studies of tourism Spanish French or German tourism is treated almost in isolation and there are only hints of a larger transnational impetus behind the creation of national tourism products This volume tells a different story Although modern tourism first evolved in Europe changes were never confined to national borders The Grand Tour the birthplace of modern tourism was consummately transnational in both its execution and its influence Although seaside resorts originated in Britain the aesthetic and scientific ideas that made beaches desirable emerged through conversation among Dutch painters English travellers and both British and Continental scientists and philosophers When travel was finally available to the masses Irish tourism advocates looked to England Continental Europe and America for ideas The Nazi leisure organization Strength through Joy KdF was based on an earlier Italian model the Dopolavoro World's Fair promoters raided previous fairs in other countries for ideas European wide demand and taste helped shape nudist practice in France and beyond At every turn practices and products developed because tourism lent itself to trans national discourse The contributors examine a wide range of topics that together make a powerful argument for the adoption of a new transnational model for understanding modern tourism An essential addition to the library of academics studying the history of tourism popular culture and leisure in Europe the book will also provide interest to scholars of transnational topics including Europeanization and globalization

Home/Schooling

Kyle Greenwalt, 2016-03-22 During the nineteenth century social reformers took hold of an already existing institution the school and sought to make it compulsory In the process they supplanted parents and domestic life the home as the primary educational force for children As education was taken out of the home American classrooms were at the same time remade into a particular kind of home life one based upon a sentimentalized maternity where love can always triumph over the public and masculine forces of competition merit and hierarchy And so love entered into the discourse of teaching In this model a good teacher loves her students She makes her classroom into a home Like a good mother she sacrifices for them enduring long hours of isolation low pay and little public support or recognition Students in their turn should love their teacher To please her they should learn the values that would sustain a more virtuous republic Parenting through all of this was redefined as a private activity Battle lines were drawn and the stakes were love learning and control It doesn't need to be this way It is time to rethink the ways in which parents and teachers interact with one another It is time to redefine homeschooling as something all families engage in and that all public schools should seek to support
