Interpreting Life Patricia C. Burke, 2011-03-25 Interpreting Life depicts one Christian woman's struggle to determine her place in the home and church as the traditional roles of the 1950s gave way to the chaos created by the social movements of the 1960s and 1970s Burke's lengthy journey brought her from a state of confusion to a conscious awareness of the effects of her cohort conservative religious beliefs and close relationships on her personal and spiritual development From childhood she worshipped with a church where submission scriptures in the New Testament were taken literally and women were not allowed to participate in any public leadership roles such as leading prayers and songs teaching adults or preaching As society changed and women gradually acquired leadership roles in other organizations these church practices became more stifling preventing many conservative women from using their God-given talents Because of her marriage to a minister where she felt her family was living in a glass house it became exceedingly frustrating to adhere to traditional religious values Throughout this process their marriage relationship was repeatedly challenged but their commitment to each other and the church helped them resolve their differences and work together to reinterpret women's roles in the church Journal writing was the technique used to make sense of the contradictions and internal conflict experienced as this Christian woman attempted to remain faithful to her religious beliefs and yet develop to her full potential Excerpts from over thirty years of writing reveals the strategies Burke employed to remain positive and productive as family and church priorities took precedent over her own dreams

Charles A. Lindbergh and the American Dilemma Susan M. Gray, 1988 Throughout his life Lindbergh's value structure interests and activities shifted and moved yielding a conflict between instinct and intellect Both its presence in his life and his readjustment of values in accordance with it are representative of his time and culture He moved with the twentieth century itself from a faith in technology to a disenchantment with it and finally to a balanced resolution that synthesized the seeming oppositions of technology and the human spirit This emphasis on a balance between technology and humanity and Lindbergh's belief that maintained the complementarity rather than the opposition of the two forces finally culminated in a post technological mysticism a teleological worldview of science and nature as aspects of the same physical and spiritual environment

Writing the Heavenly Frontier Denice Turner, 2011-03-10 Writing the Heavenly Frontier celebrates the early voices of the air as it examines the sky as a metaphorical and political landscape While flight histories usually focus on the physical dangers of early aviation this book introduces the figurative liabilities of ascension Early pilot writers not only grappled with an unwieldy machine they also grappled with poetics that were extremely selective Tropes that cast Charles Lindbergh as the transcendent hero of the new millennium were the same ones that kept women black Americans and indigenous peoples imaginatively tethered to the ground The most popular flight autobiographies in the United States posited a hero who rose from the mundane to the miraculous and yet the most startling autobiographies point out the social factors that limited or forbade vertical movement both literally and figuratively A survey of pilot writing the book will appeal to flight enthusiasts and people interested in American autobiography and culture But it will also appeal strongly to readers interested in the poetics and politics of place

Wisdom from Gift from the Sea Anne Morrow Lindbergh, Inc Peter Pauper Press, 2001-12 Excerpts from the original bestseller on love happiness solitude and contentment

God's Eugenicist Andrés Horacio Reggiani, 2007 The temptations of a new genetically informed eugenics and of a revived faith based world wide political stance this study of the interaction of science religion politics and the culture of celebrity in twentieth century Europe and America offers a fascinating and important contribution to the history of this movement The author looks at the career of French born physician and Nobel Prize winner Alexis Carrel 1873 1944 as a way of understanding the popularization of eugenics through religious faith scientific expertise cultural despair and right wing politics in the 1930s and 1940s Carrel was among the most prestigious experimental surgeons of his time who also held deeply illiberal views In Man the Unknown 1935 he endorsed fascism and called for the elimination of the unfit The book became a huge international success largely thanks to its promotion by Readers Digest as well as by the author's friendship with Charles Lindbergh In 1941 he went into the service of the French pro German regime of Vichy which appointed him to head an institution of eugenics research His influence was remarkable affecting radical Islamic groups as well Le Pen's Front National that celebrated him as the founder of ecology

Locked Rooms and Open Doors Anne Morrow Lindbergh, 1974 Ten year old Belle Mundy's opportunity to learn to read and write is blocked by her fear of being teased
