Années Vingt:

Théâtre et cinéma années vingt Claudine Amiard-Chevrel, 1990 Les créateurs d'aujourd'hui metteurs en scène acteurs d'interprètes auteurs passent facilement de la scène au cinéma ou vice versa la recherche d'autres modes de création et de narration de techniques et de contacts différents voire de remise en cause Un retour aux racines de ce siècle finissant d couvrir les premières manifestations de ces étroites relations permet d analyser leur fonctionnement Le cinéma naît alors que le vieux théâtre s'est déjà engagé travers une critique du réalisme académique dans la voie du renouvellement radical de ses formes Souvent la polémique s'embrase Enfant de la technique et attraction foraine tout la fois le cinéma cherche à se manifester du poids et de la tutelle de la scène qui lui fournit pourtant du prêt à filmer Et celle-ci qui craint sa concurrence pourra le dévaloriser en lui déniant toute qualité artistique la relation conflictuelle se substitue très vite un réseau serré d'influences réciproques nées de l'expérimentation de l'échange des circulations emprunts ou impropriations Ce sont des artistes venus des variétés ou de la scène d'avant-garde Chaplin Buñuel Eisenstein qui portent le muet son sommet Le cinéma qui transforme le regard du public de théâtre est une école pour les hommes de la scène Il s'affirme comme un art partiellement capable s'il le faut de transposer des pièces en films originaux René Clair Le théâtre en révolution s'enrichit son propre contact d'un bagage nouveau fait éclater ses propres limites Brecht Meyerhold K H Martin Et tous deux s'emparent des grands mythes contemporains masses en scène masses d'interprètes Deux volumes qui traitent des interactions fécondes entre ces deux arts au début du siècle dans une confrontation des pratiques des aires culturelles et des angles d'approches avec pour temps fort le carrefour capital des années vingt Un Lyonnais célèbre des années vingt : Claudius Linossier, dinandier Jean and to help readers get their bearings in the imaginative world of the text Today the convergence of digital mapping and globalization has spurred a cartographic turn in literature This book gathers leading scholars to consider the relationship of literature and cartography Generously illustrated with full color maps and visualizations it offers the first systematic overview of an emerging approach to the study of literature The literary map is not merely an illustrative guide but represents a set of relations and tensions that raise questions about representation fiction and space Is literature even mappable In exploring the cartographic components of literature the contributors have not only brought literary theory to bear on the map but have also enriched the vocabulary and perspectives of literary studies with cartographic terms After establishing the theoretical and methodological terrain they trace important developments in the history of literary cartography considering topics that include Homer and Joyce Goethe and the representation of nature and African cartographies Finally they consider cartographic genres that reveal the broader connections between texts and maps discussing literary map genres in American literature and the coexistence of image and text in early maps When cartographic aspirations outstripped factual knowledge mapmakers turned to textual fictions Contributors Jean Marc Besse Bruno Bosteels Patrick M Bray Martin Br ckner Tom Conley J rg D nne Anders Engberg Pedersen John K Noyes Ricardo Padr n Barbara Piatti Simone Pinet Clara Rowland Oliver Simons Robert Stockhammer Dominic Thomas Burkhardt Wolf

Institution & Innovation ,2020-12-07 Usually the term innovation is used in connection with artists and authors themes and techniques What we see in most studies about innovation is that its problematic aspects are related to problems in literary or artistic history and that scholars try to solve those problems in work oriented research Some scholars however especially emperical sociologists claim that problems with respect to innovation cannot be solved without analyzing the cultural area where those problems arise The major question that this book discusses concerns the role of art committees literary art and film critics art collectors museum directors academic writers and other gatekeepers with regard to different forms of art in the interbellum period as well as after World War II Paths of Integration Leo Lucassen,David Feldman,Jochen Oltmer,2006 Why do some migrants integrate quickly while others become long term minorities What is the role of the state in the settlement process To what extent are experiences in the past different from the present Are the recent migrants really integrating in another way than those in the past Is Islam indeed an obstacle to integration These are some of the burning questions which dominate the current politicized debate on immigration in Western Europe In this book leading historians and social scientists analyze and compare a variety of settlement processes in past and present migration to Western Europe Identifying general factors in the process of adaptation of new immigrants the contributors trace social changes effected by recent European immigration and the parallels with the great American migration of the 1880s 1920s The history of migration to Western Europe and the way these migrants found their place in the receiving societies is not only essential to understand the way nations deal with newcomers in the present but also constitutes a highly interesting laboratory for different paths of integration now and then By analyzing and comparing a wealth of settlement processes both in the past and in the present this book is both a bold interdisciplinary endeavor and at the same time the first attempt to identify general factors underlying the way migrants adapt to their new surroundings as well as how societies change under the influence of immigration The chapters in the book both look at specific groups in various periods but also analyses the structure of the state churches unions and other important organized actors in Western European nation states Moreover the results are embedded in the more theoretical American literature on the comparison of old and new migrants All chapters have an explicit comparative perspective either by comparing different groups or different periods whereas the general conclusion ties together the various outcomes in a systematic way highlighting the main answers to the central questions about the various outcomes of settlement processes Publisher Mandelstam's Worlds Andrew Kahn,2020 A critical study of the Russian poet Osip Mandelstam It positions him in the literary ideological and aesthetic culture of his time as a writer embroiled in the changing literary culture and personal ethics of a new world A Vision of Europe Conan Fischer,2017 This volume investigates and re evaluates Franco German relations during the inter war Great Depression providing a fresh understanding of Franco German conflict and cooperation during the past century and in the process demonstrating that present day European integration based around the Paris Berlin axis has far deeper roots than previously imagined The Great War and the Origins of Humanitarianism, 1918-1924 Bruno Cabanes,2014-03-13 Pioneering study of the transition from war to peace and the birth of humanitarian rights after the Great War Mission & Science Carine Dujardin,Claude Prudhomme,2015-03-26 Science as an instrument to justify religious missions in secular society The relationship between religion and science is complex and continues to be a topical issue However it is seldom zoomed in on from both Protestant andCatholic perspectives By doing so the contributing authors in this collection gain new insights into the origin and development of missiology Missiology is described in this book as a project of modernity a contemporary form of apologetics Scientific apologetics was the way to justify missions in a society that was rapidly becoming secularized Mission Sciencedeals with the interaction between new scientific disciplines historiography geography ethnology anthropology linguistics and new scientific insights Darwin s evolutionary theory heliocentrism as well as the role of the papacy and what inspired missionary practice first in China and the Far East and later in Africa The renewed missiology has in turn influenced the missionary practice of the twentieth century guided by apostolic policy Some missionary scholars have even had a significant influence on the scientific discourse of their time Beyond Given Knowledge Harri Veivo,Jean-Pierre Montier,Françoise Nicol,David Ayers,Benedikt Hjartarson,Sascha Bru,2017-12-18 The effort to go beyond given knowledge in different domains artistic scientific political metaphysical is a characteristic driving force in modernism and the avant gardes Since the late 19th century artists and writers have frequently investigated their medium and its limits pursued political and religious aims and explored hitherto unknown physical social and conceptual spaces often in ways that combine these forms of critical inquiry into one and provoke further theoretical and methodological innovations The fifth volume of the EAM series casts light on the history and actuality of investigations quests and explorations in the European avant garde and modernism from the late 19th century to the present day The authors seek to answer questions such as How have modernism and the avant garde appropriated scientific knowledge religious dogmas and social conventions pursuing their investigation beyond the limits of given knowledge and conceptions How have modernism and avant garde created new conceptual models or representations where other discourses have allegedly failed In what ways do practises of investigation quest or exploration shape artistic work or the formal and thematic structures of artworks The Letters of Sylvia Beach Sylvia Beach, 2010

Annotation Sylvia Beach has been called the patron saint of independent bookstores In this first collection of her letters we witness her day to day dealings as bookseller and publisher to expatriate Paris
