Ducheine, Frans P.B. Osinga, 2017-07-14 With a foreword by Major General Nico Geerts Commander Netherlands Defence Academy Breda The Netherlands International conflict resolution increasingly involves the use of non military power and non kinetic capabilities alongside military capabilities in the face of hybrid threats In this book counter measures to those threats are addressed by academics with both practical and theoretical experience and knowledge providing strategic and operational insights into non kinetic conflict resolution and on the use of power to influence affect deter or coerce states and non state actors This volume in the NL ARMS series deals with the non kinetic capabilities to address international crises and conflicts and as always views matters from a global perspective Included are chapters on the promise practice and challenges of non kinetic instruments of power the instrumentality of soft power information as a power instrument and manoeuvring in the information environment Russia s use of deception and misinformation in conflict applying counter marketing techniques to fight ISIL using statistics to profile terrorists and employing tools such as Actor and Audience Analysis Such diverse subjects as lawfare the Law of Armed Conflict rules for non kinetic cyber attacks navigation warfare GPS spoofing maritime interception operations and finally as a prerequisite innovative ways for intelligence collection in UN

Peacekeeping in Mali come up for discussion The book will provide both professionals such as foreign policy makers and those active in the military services academics at a master level and those with an interest in military law and the law of armed conflict with useful and up to date insights into the wide range of subjects that are contained within it Paul A L Ducheine and Frans P B Osinga are General Officers and full professors at the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda The Netherlands Specific to this volume in the Series Written by academics with both practical and theoretical experience Addresses counter measures to hybrid crises Offers both strategic and operational insights to non kinetic conflict resolution Health Sciences Literature Review Made Easy Judith Garrard,2013-05-20 This fourth edition is a text for your nursing research course and provides students with a solid foundation and the tools they need to evaluate articles and research effectively The fourth edition builds on the digital updates made to the previous edition and highlights the Matrix Method and the skills necessary to critically evaluate articles The text also covers Method Maps which teach students how to effectively construct a research study The author leads students through the process of how to manage a quality literature review in the context of evidence based practice A case study highlighting a typical graduate student is woven throughout the text to illustrate the importance of literature reviews and evidence based practice Health sciences literature review made easy fourth edition is appropriate for graduate level nursing courses as well as undergraduate Nursing Research courses that require literature reviews Cambridge Handbook of Experimental Political Science James N. Druckman,2011-06-06 This volume provides the first comprehensive overview of how political scientists have used experiments to transform their field of study The Oxford Handbook of Political Participation Marco Giugni,Maria Grasso,2022-06-16 The Oxford Handbook of Political Participation provides the first comprehensive up to date treatment of political participation in all its varied forms investigates a wide range of topics in the field from both a theoretical and methodological perspective and covers the most recent developments in the area It brings together research traditions from political science and sociology bridging the gap in particular between political sociology and social movement studies contributions also draw on crucial work in psychology economics anthropology and geography Following a detailed introduction from the editors the volume is divided into nine parts that explore political participation across disciplines core theoretical perspectives methodological approaches modes of participation contexts determinants processes outcomes and current trends and future directions The book will be a valuable reference work for anyone interested in understanding political participation and related themes Thinking Like a Political Scientist Christopher Howard,2022-12-22 A compelling case for transforming how research methods are taught to undergraduate students of political science London School of Economics Review of Books Each year tens of thousands of students who are interested in politics go through a rite of passage they take a course in research methods Many find the subject to be boring or confusing and with good reason Most of the standard books on research methods fail to highlight the most important concepts and questions Instead they brim with dry technical definitions and focus heavily on statistical analysis slighting other valuable methods This approach prevents students from mastering the skills they need to engage more directly and meaningfully with a wide variety of research With wit and practical wisdom Christopher Howard draws on more than a decade of experience teaching research methods to transform a typically dreary subject and teach budding political scientists the critical skills they need to read published research more effectively and produce better research of their own The first part of the book is devoted to asking three fundamental questions in political science What happened Why Who cares In the second section Howard demonstrates how to answer these questions by choosing an appropriate research design selecting cases and working with numbers and written documents as evidence Drawing on examples from American and comparative politics international relations and public policy Thinking Like a Political Scientist highlights the most common challenges that political scientists routinely face and each chapter concludes with exercises so that students can practice dealing with those challenges
