Four of Everything celebrates everything that's great, surprising or silly in America using the foolproof method of bracketology to determine what we love or hate and why. As certain to make you laugh as it will start friendly arguments, The Final Four of Everything is the perfect book for those who know a little and anyone with an opinion on celebrity mugshots, literary heroes, sports nicknames or bacon. Bracketology is a unique way of organizing information that dates back to the rise of the knockout or single elimination tournament, perhaps in medieval times. Its origins are not precisely known, but there was genius in the first bracket design that hasn't changed much over the years. You, of course, may be familiar with the bracket format via the NCAA basketball tournament pairings each March. If you've ever watched ESPN or participated in a March Madness office pool, you know what a bracket looks like. The Final Four of Everything takes the idea one step further and applies the knockout format to every category BUT basketball. In areas where taste, judgment and hard-earned wisdom really matter, we've set out to determine truly the Final Four of Everything.

I Wore Babe Ruth's Hat David W. Zang, 2015-05-15

David W. Zang played junior high school basketball in a drained swimming pool. He wore a rubber suit to bed to make weight for a wrestling meet. He kept a log as an obsessive runner, not a jogger. In short, he soldiered through the life of an ordinary athlete. Whether pondering his long-unbuilt replica of Connie Mack Stadium or his eye-opening turn as the Baltimore Ravens mascot, Zang offers tales at turns poignant and hilarious as he engages with the passions that shaped his life. Yet his meditations also probe the tragedy of a modern athletic culture that substitutes hyped spectatorship for participation. As he laments American society's increasing scorn for taking part in play, he robs adults of the life-affirming virtues of games that challenge us to accomplish the impossible for the most transcendent of reasons: to see if it can be done. From teammates named Lop to tracing Joe Paterno's long shadow over Happy Valley, I Wore Babe Ruth's Hat reports from the everyman's Elysium where games and life intersect.
