Contemporary Fiction and the Fairy Tale Stephen Benson, 2008-06-16 Students and teachers of fiction folklore and fairy tale studies will appreciate this insightful volume Color, Space, and Creativity Jack Stewart, 2008 This study of Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence Joyce Cary Lawrence Durrell and A S Byatt focuses on color space and creativity in selected novels stories travel texts essays and letters Stewart highlights a nexus of color space and creativity that takes on ontological dimensions in the writing of five writers who are linked by stylistic affinities and correspondingly calibrated sensibilities. They engage writing with painting and their acts of attention converge in a zone where color space and creativity sustain the imaginative life world of their characters This study should lead to ongoing reflections on the roles of color and space in modernist and postmodernist texts and direct attention to the subtle and pervasive interactions of literature with painting Poetics of the Hive Cristopher Hollingsworth, 2005-04 Cris Hollingsworth's waggle dance after scouting the rangiest field of literature Virgil and Homer down to Milton and Swift on to Plath and Byattleads you to where the nectar hides He wisely roams extracting an anthology of poetry prose psychology historymost of all perception that tops the bee s knees Paul West author of The Secret Life of Words Hollingsworth's wide ranging exploration of the image of the hive is impressive Poetics of the Hive and its panoply of references cannot fail to enrich university classrooms especially those devoted to both the visual arts and literature Dore Ashton author of A Fable of Modern Art Cris Hollingsworth's Poetics of the Hive is complex even daring in argument I m even more impressed by his skill at an increasingly rare critical art the educing of argument from careful often brilliant analytical reading of literary texts Thomas R Edwards executive editor of Raritan A Quarterly Review A study to delight the passionate reader Poetics of the Hive tells the story of the evolution of the insect metaphor from antiquity to the multicultural present An experiment in the evolutionary biology of artistic form Poetics of the Hive freshly examines classic works of literature offering a view of poetic creation that complicates our ideas of the past and its formative role in modern consciousness and world literature. In the first part of this lyrical synthesis of rhetoric visual and postmodern theory and cognitive science Cristopher Hollingsworth reveals the structure behind his metaphor redefining it as an aesthetically and philosophically potent tableau that he calls the Hive He traces the Hive's evolution in epic poetry from Homer to Milton which establishes antithetical but complementary images of angelic and demonic bees that Swift Mandeville and Keats use variously to debate classical versus emerging ideas of the individual s relationship to society But the Hive becomes fully psychologized Hollingsworth argues only when its use by Conrad and Wells to explore Europe s colonial imagination of the Other is transformed by Kafka and Sartre into competing symbols of the modern self's existential condition Cristopher Hollingsworth is an assistant professor of English at St John s University Staten Island Daughters of Empire Jane Satterfield, 2009 A dual British American national on her first return trip to England in over a decade Jane Satterfield faced a woman's fundamental decision to become a mother or to forge a new life on her own That the decision was not so simple was only the first of many revelations Satterfield casts a loving yet skeptical glance on the world of mid 90s Britain as well as the cultural and literary legacy that continues to haunt shape and challenge her In a voice by turns tender insightful and funny Satterfield brings to life a provocative personal history through fascinating detours into music popular culture and literary mothers such as the Bront s Sylvia Plath and Angela Carter Amazon com The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, 1997-10 On the Turn Bárbara Arizti, Silvia Martínez-Falguina, 2009-05-05 On the Turn The Ethics of Fiction in Contemporary Narrative in English is an attempt to listen to the various voices that participate in the current dialogue on the relationship between fiction and ethics. The editors introduction investigates the current state of affairs on the return to ethics in critical and literary consideration and it opens up the way for the variety of approaches that follows Participants include internationally recognized scholars like Andrew Gibson Patricia Waugh or Native American fiction writer and poet Gordon Henry winner of the American Book Award in 1995 All in all contributors cover a significant geographical diversity and their approaches also vary from general theory to particular examples from traditional interpretations to post deconstruction ethics Authors analyze texts both mainstream and marginal colonial and postcolonial they examine the ethics of race gender and sexuality the ethics of self positioning and orientation the ethics of style the ethics of reception the ethics of mode and genre the ethics of extreme situations of evil disease and fascism In its search for a better understanding of the global nationalistic world of today On the Turn therefore moves beyond the scope of literary criticism into issues of wider more urgent relevance What should I ought I may I must I do if anything on the basis of reading when I have read a literary work What does reading a literary work authorize or even command me to do Writing an essay about the work would be one response On the Turn is a wonderfully diverse learned challenging provocative even sometimes controversial collection of essays on the ethical dimensions of literature This book is testimony to the continued lively interest in the ethical turn in literary studies The authors are for the most part concerned with ethical theory and with ethically charged situations in postmodern novels in English as they shape readers values and judgments Poetry and non print media are however also discussed J Hillis Miller UCI Distinguished Research Professor of Comparative Literature and English University of California at Irvine The Ethics of Fiction is an important and exciting volume that explores with energy and rigour the connections between ethics and literature Relating literature to philosophy neurobiology politics religion deconstruction and psychoanalysis the twenty two contributors richly advance the ethical turn recently embraced by many critics Works by authors such as Ian McEwan A S Byatt Charles Palliser Hanif Kureishi J M Coetzee David Malouf George Orwell E L Doctorow Flannery O Connor Toni Morrison and Paul Auster are presented in a new light and complex topics such as territoriality the nature of love Islamophobia and the politics of representation are tackled with imagination and intellectual integrity This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the dialogue between ethics and literature Avril Horner Professor of English Kingston University Race in Cyberspace Beth Kolko, Lisa Nakamura, Gilbert has failed to grasp the hard realities of our global age This book disputes these short sighted and clearly ideological positions pointing to the radically transforming effects of modernization on the world's traditional cultures and the inevitable problems and challenges in areas relative to religious fundamentalisms weakening political institutions ecosystems ravaged by global technologies and world wide attempts by various nations to achieve economic and political stability. In the debates and tentative conclusions presented in this book the reader will learn about the on going dialectic that shapes modernity through a re imagined humanism and critique currently indispensable in an emerging world order in which democratic ideals and intercultural understanding are vanishing possibilities. Congressional Record United States. Congress, Power Over Rationality Alex Roberto Hybel,1993-01-01 To most Americans the Gulf War symbolizes the culmination of a highly sophisticated decision making process within the Bush administration. In this highly readable and challenging book Hybel demonstrates the shortcomings of such a view by using cognitive models to examine how the administration defined problems identified goals assessed alternatives and selected options during the seven months preceding the start of the war This book will prove to be a critical contribution to the understanding of the Bush administration s thinking process during the Gulf crisis and of the value of cognitive models in explaining foreign policy making
