emergence of rock n roll in Russian Other papers examine the reception of Anglo American stage musicals and musical films in Italy and Spain the concept of singability with examples from Scandinavian languages and the French dubbing of musical episodes of TV series The volume also offers an annotated bibliography on opera translation and a general bibliography on translation and music "The" Academy, 1883 War, Government and Power in Late Medieval France C. T. Allmand, 2000-01-01 The essays in this volume portray the public life of late medieval France as that country established its position as a leader of western European society in the early modern world A central theme is the contribution made by contemporary writers chroniclers and commentators such as Jean Froissart William Worcester and Philippe de Commines to our understanding of the past Who were they What picture of their times did they present Were their works intended to influence their contemporaries and what success did they enjoy Other contributions deal with the exercise of political power the relationship between the court and those in authority in far flung reaches of the kingdom and the role and status of the death penalty as deterrent punishment and means of achieving justice a very valuable overview of recent work on the interface between the intellectual and the political history of the Valois realm De Re Militari Online this collection will be of particular interest to literary scholars as well as historians in view of the emphasis of many of the essays on representations above event or record Medium Aevum On Translation Paul Ricoeur, 2007-01-24 Paul Ricoeur was one of the most important philosophers of the twentieth century In this short and accessible book he turns to a topic at the heart of much of his work What is translation and why is it so important Reminding us that The Bible the Koran the Torah and the works of the great philosophers are often only ever read in translation Ricoeur reminds us that translation not only spreads knowledge but can change its very meaning In spite of these risk he argues that in a climate of ethnic and religious conflict the art and ethics of translation are invaluable Drawing on interesting examples such as the translation of early Greek philosophy during the Renaissance the poetry of Paul Celan and the work of Hannah Arendt he reflects not only on the challenges of translating one language into another but how one community speaks to another Throughout Ricoeur shows how to move through life is to navigate a world that requires translation itself Paul Ricoeur died in 2005 He was one of the great contemporary French philosophers and a leading figure in hermeneutics psychoanalytic thought literary theory and religion His many books include Freud and Philosophy and Time and Narrative Cy-Borges Stefan Herbrechter, Ivan Callus, 2009 Cy Borges provides radically new posthumanist readings of such established Borgesian fictions as The Aleph The Library of Babel Funes the Memorious The Garden of Forking Paths and The Circular Ruins They will be equally illuminating to readers of Hispanic and world literature as to students of critical and cultural theory and anybody who is fascinated with the idea of the posthuman and posthumanism BOOK JACKET Traduction Harald Kittel, 2004 This international encyclopedia documents and surveys for the first time the entire complex of translation as well as the operations and phenomena associated with it Structured along systematic historical and geographic lines it offers a comprehensive and critical account of the current

Ethics and Aesthetics of Translation Harriet Hulme, 2018-11-19 Ethics and Aesthetics of Translation engages with translation in both theory and practice as part of an interrogation of ethical as well as political thought in the work of three bilingual European authors Bernardo Atxaga Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprín In approaching the work of these authors the book draws upon the approaches to translation offered by Benjamin Derrida Ricœur and Deleuze to highlight a broad set of ethical questions focused upon the limitations of the monolingual and the democratic possibilities of linguistic plurality upon our innate desire to translate difference into similarity and upon the ways in which translation responds to the challenges of individual and collective remembrance Each chapter explores these interlingual but also intercultural interrelational and interdisciplinary issues mapping a journey of translation that begins in the impact of translation upon the work of each author continues into moments of linguistic translation untranslatability and mistranslation within their texts and ultimately becomes an exploration of social political and affective untranslatability In these journeys the creative and critical potential of translation emerges as a potent often violent but always illuminating vision of the possibilities of differentiation and connection generation and memory in temporal linguistic cultural and political terms
