time It brings the narrative down to her first arrest Through an interpreter she gave a description of her early prison experiences and an outline of her later life to Ernest Poole who published it in the Outlook To the Outlook I am indebted also for her letters written in prison to her son Her experiences after she was sent to Siberia for the second time are told in her own correspondence Her full name in Russian is Ekaterina Constantinovna Breshko Breshkovskaya I have used the shortened form of it which she herself used in this country About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
