Motherhood in Literature and Culture Gill Rye,Victoria Browne,Adalgisa Giorgio,Emily Jeremiah,Abigail Lee Six,2017-06-26 Motherhood remains a complex and contested issue in feminist research as well as public discussion This interdisciplinary volume explores cultural representations of motherhood in various contemporary European contexts including France Italy Germany Portugal Spain and the UK and it considers how such representations affect the ways in which different individuals and groups negotiate motherhood as both institution and lived experience It has a particular focus on literature but it also includes essays that examine representations of motherhood in philosophy art social policy and film The book s driving contention is that through intersecting with other fields and disciplines literature and the study of literature have an important role to play in nuancing dialogues around motherhood by offering challenging insights and imaginative responses to complex problems and experiences This is demonstrated throughout the volume which covers a range of topics including discursive and visual depictions of pregnancy and birth the impact of new reproductive technologies on changing family configurations the relationship between mothering and citizenship the shaping of policy imperatives regarding mothering and disability and the difficult realities of miscarriage child death violence and infanticide The collection expands and complicates hegemonic notions of motherhood as the authors map and analyse shifting conceptions of maternal subjectivity and embodiment explore some of the constraining and or enabling contexts in which mothering takes place and ask searching questions about what it means to be a mother in Europe today It will be of interest not only to those working in gender women s and feminist studies but also to scholars in literary and cultural studies and those researching in sociology criminology politics psychology medical ethics midwifery and related fields
