Before Bonnie Clyde in 1934-35, there was Gramma Glenn during Prohibition from 1928-31. Gramma, also called The Blonde Menace, the Gungirl, and Iron Irene, stole autos in Ohio, robbed fuel stations in West Virginia, Indiana, and Illinois, stuck up banks in Texas, Missouri, and Arkansas, and stole from retail stores and individuals across the West, kidnapping and murdering in states stretching as far as Arizona. It was said in 1929 a Police Officer was killed and his partner badly wounded in a gun battle when Gramma and her gang were confronted for robbing a grocery store in Butler, PA. Irene's four-year-old son, the Author's Father, was in the car and observed the theft, murder, and getaway. He proudly announced to his family when his Mother dropped him off for safekeeping, the police and reporters: "I saw My Mom Kill A Cop, and Mama is the brains of the outfit." After fleeing with her lover Glenn across the USA and being front-page news in a year-long, highly sensationalized trial, Gramma was the first woman to be executed in the State of PA. In spite of insurmountable odds and difficult challenges, Gramma's little son grew up to be a hero in the Korean conflict and NASA. The Author meets her Dad before he dies, and he fills in all the answers to her lifelong questions. Take this unbelievable journey with the Author as she starts her paternal genealogy and journals the events in order to handle the trauma of what was being discovered. Discover facts found 80 years later that uncover an entirely different story than the media at the time produced and uncover the surprise ending. The Kindergarten for Teachers and Parents, 1892 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1994-02 Subject Guide to Children's Books In Print, 1996 R.
