Baby Love 1st Edition:

Mother's Milk Bernice L. Hausman, 2014-02-04 Mother's Milk examines why nursing a baby is an ideologically charged experience in contemporary culture Drawing upon medical studies feminist scholarship anthropological literature and an intimate knowledge of breastfeeding itself Bernice Hausman demonstrates what is at stake in mothers infant feeding choices economically socially and in terms of women's rights Breastfeeding controversies she argues reveal social tensions around the meaning of women's bodies the authority of science and the value of maternity in American culture A provocative and multi faceted work Mother's Milk will be of interest to anyone concerned with the politics of women's embodiment Your Legacy of Love Gemini Adams, 2009-06 Grief expert Gemini Adams wrote this Mom's Choice Gold Award Winning book Your Legacy of Love Realize the Gift in Goodbye to help others understand that writing a Will simply isn't enough After losing her Mom to cancer Gemini quickly discovered that an inheritance of money and material possessions doesn't give surviving family the ongoing support or continued connection they desire Wondering if her need for a more loving legacy was shared she started an online survey asking What would you prefer if one of your parents died to inherit their wealth or a letter saying how much they loved you Over 90% expressed a wish for the loving letter In this heartfelt and inspirational book Gemini explains that our real wealth lies not in our Financial Assets but our Emotional Assets the stories lessons values wisdom image voice laughter and love that makes us who we are And how this purposeful activity is not as some might expect a morbid task but one that can bring incredible insight peace of mind and healing especially for those dealing with aging parents a terminal illness or loss By capturing and sharing our Emotional Assets in a Legacy of Love we can leave our children partners and grandchildren a precious parting gift a timeless memento that will surely be treasured forever Readers will also discover how to Write loving letters to gift as future surprises Encourage grief recovery for surviving family Provide them with ongoing emotional support Minimize effects of grief and bereavement Guarantee the preservation of special memories Capture and record their life story Limit stress surrounding end of life situations Achieve peace of mind and a sense of meaning to life Educate themselves and overcome denial about death and dying Plan a life celebration or funeral that truly reflects them Get more information at <http://www.RealizetheGift.com> Physical Education Health and Music Iv (worktext) 1st Ed. 1993 , Why Love Matters Sue Gerhardt, 2014-10-24 Why Love Matters explains why loving relationships are essential to brain development in the early years and how these early interactions can have lasting consequences for future emotional and physical health This second edition follows on from the success of the first updating the scientific research covering recent findings in genetics and the mind body connection and including a new chapter highlighting our growing understanding of the part also played by pregnancy in shaping a baby's future emotional and physical well being The author focuses in particular on the wide ranging effects of early stress on a baby or toddler's developing nervous system When things go wrong with relationships in early life the dependent child has to adapt what we now know is that his or her brain adapts too The brain's emotion and immune systems are particularly affected by early stress and can become less effective This makes the child more vulnerable to a range of later difficulties such as depression anti social behaviour addictions or anorexia as well as physical illness The Violence of Love Kit W. Myers, 2025-01-28 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more The Violence of Love challenges the narrative that adoption is a solely loving act that benefits birth parents adopted individuals and adoptive parents a narrative that is especially pervasive with transracial and transnational adoptions Using interdisciplinary methods of archival legal and discursive analysis Kit W Myers comparatively examines the adoption of Asian Black and Native American children by White families in the United States He shows how race has been constructed relationally to mark certain homes families and nations as spaces of love freedom and better futures in contrast to others that are not and argues that violence is attached to adoption in complex ways Propelled by different types of love such adoptions attempt to transgress biological racial cultural and national borders established by traditional family ideals Yet they are also linked to structural symbolic and traumatic forms of violence The Violence of Love confronts this discomforting reality and rethinks theories of family to offer more capacious understandings of love kinship and care African American Musical Heritage Lenard C. Bowie, 2012-01-30 LENARD C BOWIE DMA ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF MUSIC RETIRED THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH FLORIDA JACKSONVILLE FLORIDA Dr Lenard C Bowie has developed an enviable reputation as a consummate musician He is a classical trumpet artist accomplished band director effective music administrator skilled lecturer and published author As an author Bowie's expertise in several fields of endeavor has been documented through the following subjects as published in the professional music journals indicated Solving Problems of Young Trumpet Players published in the Music Educators National Journal December 1979 a critical review of Black University Marching Bands in the 80's published by The Marching Band January 1981 and the Proceedings of an Informal Research Conference whose mission was to document the extent to which African American music courses were offered in Florida's Public Schools was published by the Florida Music Educator June 2002 As an undergraduate Bowie was plagued by many questions concerning the absence of formal instruction in the music of his people especially when considering the fact that there were only two authentic types of American music that of the American Indians and that of African Americans with African American Music being the most important of the two Bowie's search for answers to his probing questions began when he enrolled in Professor Willie Ruffs course in Black Music as a graduate student at Yale University in 1974 This course opened Bowie's eyes ears and mind to many of his heretofore unanswered questions including the extent to which African music traditions are practiced in African American Music today and the impact that African American Music has made on the social political economic and religious climates of modern American Society After graduating from Yale with a Master of Musical Arts Degree in 1976 Bowie struck out on a mission to enlarge on what he had learned about African American Music This mission brought him in contact with a wealth of information through independent study of numerous publications and documentaries lectures festivals concerts and personal contacts with scholars who were or have become major players in the research dissemination performance and composition of African American Music Some of these scholars include former colleagues Dr Oily W Wilson composer and Chair of Composition at UCLA Berkeley Samuel Floyd Founder and Director of the Center for Black Music Research found at Fisk University now housed at Columbia College Chicago Dr Aaron Horne African American Music Biographer and Dean of Fine Arts Winston Salem University North Carolina Arametha Adams Hummings Founder and Director of the Gateways Music Festival initiated at the North Carolina School of the Arts now housed at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester New York Operatic Tenor and Music Educator the late Dr William A Brown Others include Dr Portia Maultsby Professor of Music at Indiana University Dr Dena Epstein Retired Music Librarian Archival Researcher and Author Chicago Dr Rene Boyer White Professor of Music Education College Conservatory of Music The University of Cincinnati and Dr John Smith Dean of Fine Arts The University of South Florida at Tampa During the first of Dr Bowie's two terms as Music Department Chair at The University of North Florida he was afforded an opportunity to apply and distribute his long sought knowledge The opportunity came in the form of a Million Dollar Endowment from the Koger Company to develop programs of study in American Music The response of the faculty to the endowment was to institute two programs a Jazz Studies Program and a program in African American Music The Jazz Studies Program has become nationally recognized for outstanding achievements in jazz theory history and performance The latter program designed and developed by Bowie was challenged
