Parenting with Reason Esther Yoder Strahan,Wallace E. Dixon, Jr.,J. Burton Banks,2009-12-04 Sometimes it feels as though everybody has an opinion on how you should bring up your child and no two people seem to agree on how it should be done for the best Parenting with Reason cuts through the masses of confusing and often contradictory advice about parenting by providing hard evidence to back up the tough decisions all parents face Unlike many self help guides to parenting which are based on the opinion of one author this book is based on many findings from scientific research giving you a trustworthy evidence based guide to help see your way through parenting dilemmas Written by a clinical psychologist a developmental psychologist and a doctor of family medicine the book looks at pressing questions such as What should I do when my child acts up How can I get my baby to sleep through the night and How do I begin to toilet train my child The authors who are also parents themselves debunk common myths about parenting such as the notion that a healthy baby needs to be able to breastfeed at will throughout the night or the idea that children who are adopted need specialized counselling They also cover issues such as how children might be affected by seeing violence on television how a parent s psychological health can affect their child what the scientific evidence is for and against circumcision and how divorce and adoption affect a child s development The end of each chapter gives you The Bottom Line a handy summary of the key points of each issue This book is ideal for new or prospective parents and paediatricians family health providers and anyone who works with children and their parents will also find the book s objective scientific approach useful in their work
