Thirst No. 2 Christopher Pike, 2012-06-19 What Alisa has desired for five thousand years has finally come true she is once again human But now she is defenseless vulnerable and for the first time in centuries emotional As she attempts to reconcile her actions as a vampire with her new connection to humanity she begins to understand the weight of life and death decisions Can Alisa resolve her past and build a new identity or is she doomed to repeat her fatal mistakes From the paranormal series that netted more than 500 000 copies after its initial publication in 1994 this stylish repackaged bindup is ideal for today s vampire savvy teen audience I Am ME One of Us, One of us, 2005 As humans we incarnate and evolve through our experiences We become independent beings capable of willing feeling and thinking We can interact make decisions judge and find our own truth identity and uniqueness But how and why do we do this We can compare our self creation to making a cake The basic ingredients for the making of a cake are the same but they are also always different The flour may be milled from wheat grown in different parts of the world the eggs may be laid by different hens and the butter made from milk taken from different cows These ingredients can be compared to our inheritance our start in life our genetic make up parents culture etc where there is always variation in color type size etc How the ingredients are put together has a profound affect on the final result The cook making a cake can be likened to our experiencing and all the information that we sense and take in to mix together Baking the cake is like our processing when we program our experiences to create our willing feeling and thinking The result is ourselves just like a cake which we can eat throw away or leave to go mouldy We can enjoy or dislike the result This is us our creation to be as we will Our autobiography is about our evolution and how we sense and program ourselves How we develop our willing feeling and thinking to create our soul This process is unique to human life and enables us to become conscious of the most important part of our being It is the reason for our existence to be consciousness of spirit We can only achieve this through creating ourselves The Primitive Methodist Magazine, 1892 Hurry! Hurry My Children Labertha Theresa Derensbourg-McCormick, 2011-07-27 Hopefully Ive given an array of hope without some doubtful era of your lifes existence as you juggle through its predicaments May you be given light to any or some of your life's circumstances, dilemmas, or situations. One of the primary purposes of my writing is not to show you my play with words but to solely promote healing in some way. Although a number of my poems written don't directly relate to the title Hurry, Hurry, My Children, some urgency of each piece written can be readily applied to the reader's thought pattern. Thus being so, the actual poem Hurry, Hurry, My Children is a beckoning to the reader to prepare and make haste. I believe that as surely as this world had a beginning, it will have an ending. My mission is to make an attempt to prepare you for the Great Transformation. Inadvertently, the seriousness of those poems related to the title is somewhat tangled with a spark of humor. Given credence to the biblical scripture, "Blessed be the merry heart within," my writings' humor is easily applied, sometimes unknowingly. 1 Thessalonians 3:13, "To the end he may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints." The Deepest Sense Constance Classen, 2012-05-15

From the softest caress to the harshest blow, touch lies at the heart of our experience of the world. Now for the first time, this deepest of senses is the subject of an extensive historical exploration. The Deepest Sense: A Cultural History of Touch fleshes out our understanding of the past with explorations of lived experiences of embodiment from the middle ages to modernity. This intimate and sensuous approach to history makes it possible to foreground the tactile foundations of Western culture, the ways in which feelings shaped society. Constance Classen explores a variety of tactile realms, including the feel of the medieval city, the tactile appeal of relics, the social histories of pain, pleasure, and affection, the bonds of touch between humans and animals, the strenuous excitement of sports such as wrestling and jousting, and the sensuous attractions of consumer culture. She delves into a range of vital issues, from the uses and prohibitions of touch in social interaction to the disciplining of the body by the modern state, from the changing feel of the urban landscape to the technologization of touch in modernity. Through poignant descriptions of the healing power of a medieval king's hand or the grueling conditions of a nineteenth-century prison, we find that history, far from being a dry and lifeless subject, touches us to the quick.

Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Born in the Year of the Butterfly Knife Derrick C. Brown, 2004. The most famous collection and largest-selling title on the Write Bloody roster, Butterfly Knife contains such award-winning pieces such as The Kurosawa Champagne, A Finger Two Dots Then Me, Pleased to Meet You, Yellow, The Chinese Elevator, and Hot for Sorrow. These are his classic, unforgettable works of poetry and fiction from 1993-2004. Praise: A wit as sharp as Sedaris, a sensibility as poignant as Sexton, Brown manages to blur the lines between cult writer and poet with remarkable ease and grace. Anthem Magazine: Derrick Brown's work, both on and off the page, sizzles with jolting images and blasts of humor, yet retains a deep compassion at its core. He has a heart the size of a Mack truck, but we're not sure who's behind the wheel. Jeffrey McDaniel: Sincere, twisted, and violently romantic. OC Weekly. The Treasure Marty Machowski, 2023-10-02.
