Muse Aakash Sarkar, 2024-05-24 The story cannot be revealed but the protagonist Niharika will surely find a place in your fancy It is in many ways about the obscure and colourful parts of Niharika's life Niharika who was just two years old when she was orphaned in the oblivion of her infancy Niharika who along with her riches has a rich personal life It is all Niharika's very personal story and the author Aakash Sarkar by his own confession has written her story as he famously says because I have looked and looked and I didn't find anything better to do Niharika walks through that house and collects that girl who is still stuck in the middle of so many sorrow and so many grief And they have all also lost each other can't even find each other She collects them as she encounters them in her walks And she nurses them She sits with them at that corner or in that room where nobody comes and nobody ever came and they are all the whole crowd of it is united by their journey and Niharika tells them the numerous bounties they found in that journey like the Chinese portrait their mother's diary a full half house hundreds of stories a nose a pair of lips cheekbones sexuality some flamboyance and then one of them holds her hands and picks her up and takes her in those journeys again through the long corridors of Maheshwari Villa to the uppermost terrace in the house where in no more than a month she will find herself sitting in the middle of a dilemma I don't know how Godmother is typically defined but I define it as the presence of a mother in her absence
