Breakaway House Arthur W. Upfield,2018-09-01 Harry Tremayne a policeman goes to an isolated valley in the remote Murchison region of Western Australia to find his brother who vanished a month earlier while investigating the murder of a police detective Do the gold smugglers at Breakaway House hold the answers to the mystery First published as a serial in the Perth Daily News in 1932 the real setting for the book is Mt Magnet about 150k north of Perth deep in gold country It is somewhat less intense and less effective than the books in the Bony series but it is successful as an early effort of Upfield s treatment of the Australian outback Ray Browne The Spirit of Australia
Unaccusativity Beth Levin, Malka Rappaport Hovav, 1994-12-07 Besides providing extensive support for David Perlmutter s hypothesis that unaccusativity is syntactically represented but semantically determined this monograph contributes significantly to the development of a theory of lexical semantic representation and to the elucidation of the mapping from lexical semantics to syntax Unaccusativity is an extended investigation into a set of linguistic phenomena that have received much attention over the last fifteen years Besides providing extensive support for David Perlmutter s hypothesis that unaccusativity is syntactically represented but semantically determined this monograph contributes significantly to the development of a theory of lexical semantic representation and to the elucidation of the mapping from lexical semantics to syntax Perlmutter s Unaccusative Hypothesis proposes that there are two classes of intransitive verbs unergatives and unaccusatives each associated with a distinct syntactic configuration Unaccusativity begins by isolating the semantic factors that determine whether a verb will be unaccusative or unergative through a careful examination of the behavior of intransitive verbs from a range of semantic classes in diverse syntactic constructions Notable are the extensive discussions of verbs of motion verbs of emission and various types of verbs of change of state The authors then introduce rules that determine the syntactic expression of the arguments of the verbs investigated and examine the interactions among them The proper treatment of verbs that systematically show multiple meanings and hence variable classification as unaccusative or unergative is also considered In the final chapter the authors argue that the distribution of locative inversion a purported unaccusative diagnostic is determined instead by discourse considerations Linguistic Inquiry Monograph No 26 Madman's Bend Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 If any man was ever born to be murdered it was William Lush a hated drunk who disappeared after beating his wife to death Plenty of men had the opportunity to murder Lush some the means none the motive Jill Madden his pretty step daughter had all three When Lush disappears Inspector Bonaparte must look for a body and the murderer before the Darling River rises to flood level This novel is one of Upfield's major accomplishments Bony's determined search no matter where guilt falls is fascinating This book is Upfield at his best from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne the Hat Box Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Sinister stones On a lonely dirt road in Western Australia a police jeep is found In it is Constable Stenhouse shot dead His Aboriginal tracker has disappeared Enter Inspector Bonaparte who soon realizes that he is not alone in his search for the criminal The local Aboriginal tribe is seeking vengeance too Fascinating in its treatment of outback life and reveals clearly the weakness Bony has for young women and for people in the cattle stations who have been abused by life and events All in all it is a creditable production From The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne Jelly's Business Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Murder down under The car lies wrecked and abandoned near the world s longest fence the rabbit proof fence in the wheat belt of Western Australia There is no sign of its owner Has George Loftus simply decamped for reasons of his own Or was it murder Bonaparte suspects the worst and is determined to find the body and the murderer This novel is filled with Upfield's own philosophy about what creates murderers We also find out a lot about Aboriginal tracking methods as well as more information about Bony's family background Mysteries in Paradise Α Checklist of Arthur Upfield Christopher P. Stephens, 1992
