Back Door To Byzantium:

Brother-making in Late Antiquity and Byzantium Claudia Rapp, 2016 Among medieval Christian societies Byzantium is unique in preserving an ecclesiastical ritual of adelphopoiesis which pronounces two men not related by birth as brothers for life It has its origin as a spiritual blessing in the monastic world of late antiquity and it becomes a popular social networking strategy among lay people from the ninth century onwards even finding application in recent times Located at the intersection of religion and society brother making exemplifies how social practice can become ritualized and subsequently subjected to attempts of ecclesiastical and legal control Controversially adelphopoiesis was at the center of a modern debate about the existence of same sex unions in medieval Europe This book the first ever comprehensive history of this unique feature of Byzantine life argues persuasively that the ecclesiastical ritual to bless a relationship between two men bears no resemblance to marriage Wide ranging in its use of sources from a complete census of the manuscripts containing the ritual of adelphopoiesis to the literature and archaeology of early monasticism and from the works of hagiographers historiographers and legal experts in Byzantium to comparative material in the Latin West and the Slavic world Brother Making in Late Antiquity and Byzantium examines the fascinating religious and social features of the ritual shedding light on little known aspects of Byzantine society

Sacred Thresholds: The Door to the Sanctuary in Late Antiquity Emilie M. van Opstall, 2018-07-10 Sacred Thresholds The Door to the Sanctuary in Late Antiquity offers a far reaching account of boundaries within pagan and Christian sanctuaries gateways in a precinct outer doors of a temple or church inner doors of a cella The study of these liminal spaces within Late Antiquity itself a key period of transition during the spread of Christianity when cultural paradigms were redefined demands an approach that is both interdisciplinary and diachronic Emilie van Opstall brings together both upcoming and noted scholars of Greek and Latin literature and epigraphy archaeology art history philosophy and religion to discuss the experience of those who crossed from the worldly to the divine both physically and symbolically What did this passage from the profane to the sacred mean to them on a sensory emotive and intellectual level Who was excluded and who was admitted The articles each offer a unique perspective on pagan and Christian sanctuary doors in the Late Antique Mediterranean

Revelations of Byzantium, 2021-01-12 The monasteries and painted churches of Moldavia stand today as a testament to the rich cultural and spiritual heritage of the Romanian people As the Romanians living in the historical provinces of Wallachia Moldavia and Transylvania which today form modern Romania struggled to maintain their autonomy against Ottoman expansion their relative freedom allowed them to express themselves both artistically and culturally Among their most remarkable creations are the monasteries and painted churches of Moldavia in northeastern Romania the subjects of this book These monuments unique in the world reflect a cultural legacy inherited from Byzantium and the Roman Empire After the fall of Byzantium and the expansion of Ottoman rule throughout the Balkan Peninsula the Romanian principalities became the most important depository of the Byzantine heritage It was here that this tradition was preserved having been passed on to the Romanians of the Middle Ages by their ancestors From here this heritage continued to spread throughout Europe and influence European society and culture creating the historical phenomenon that the great Romanian historian Nicolae Iorga would refer to as Byzantium after Byzantium The monasteries and painted churches of Northern Moldavia stand today as true revelations of Byzantium This full color album is written and photographed by Alan Ogden the author of Romania Revisited On the Trail of English Travellers 1602 1941 and Fortresses of Faith A Pictorial History of the Fortified Saxon Churches of Romania both published by the Center for Romanian Studies The author provides a comprehensive introduction discussing the art and architecture of the monasteries and painted churches of Northern Moldavia Each church is then presented separately in words and pictures to reveal its own unique history and artistic beauty Also included is an introduction to the history of Moldavia and Romanian lands during the Middle Ages by Kurt W Treptow a noted specialist on Romanian history and original illustrations by renowned artist Octavian Ion Penda
