Enlightening and inspiring Walter Isaacson Barry probes the American soul finding its biases but also nurtured by its complicated past our better angels with an opportunity to move forward Ken Burns Bringing together two of America's unifying loves road trips and Abraham Lincoln Frank Barry takes readers on a thought provoking journey into the heart of our democracy and the soul of our country A year into his marriage and having never driven an RV Frank and his wife Laurel set out from New York City in a Winnebago to drive the nation's first transcontinental route the Lincoln Highway which zigzags through small towns and big cities from Times Square to San Francisco Using the spirit of Abraham Lincoln to guide them across the land they hope to see more clearly what holds the country together and how we can keep it together even amidst political divisions have grown increasingly rancorous bitter and exhausting Along the way Frank and Laurel meet Americans whose personal experiences help humanize the nation's divisions and they encounter historical figures and events whose legacies are still shaping our sense of national identity and the struggles over it This unforgettable journey is full of what makes any great road trip memorable and enjoyable music conversation and laughter By the end readers will have a clearer picture of how we have arrived at a period that carries echoes of the Civil War era and using Lincoln as a guide where the path forward lies Back Roads Northern and Central Italy DK Travel, 2015-03-02 DK Eyewitness Back Roads

Italy takes you away from the main roads to beautiful villages and picturesque landscapes It uses in depth local knowledge to create driving tours full of original ideas for activities off the beaten track stops and authentic places to eat and to stay The itineraries include guided walks through historic towns or unspoiled countryside the rules of the road detailed maps clear driving instructions road conditions and the length of the drive to parking information and opening hours of restaurants and attractions plus a range of activities and tips on buying local crafts and produce A companion series to the Eyewitness Travel Guides the books can be used in conjunction with existing guides or on their own Flip-Flop Caroline Knowles, 2014-05-20 Shortlisted for the BBC Radio 4 Thinking Allowed Award for Ethnography 2015 This book follows the global trail of one of the world's most unremarkable and ubiquitous objects flip flops Through this unique lens Caroline Knowles takes a ground level view of the lives and places of globalisation's back roads providing new insights that challenge contemporary accounts of globalisation Rather than orderly product chains the book shows that globalisation along the flip flop trail is a tangle of unstable shifting ad hoc and contingent connections This book displays both the instabilities of the chains and the complexities personal topographies and skills with which people navigate these global uncertainties Flip Flop provides new ways of thinking about globalisation from the vantage point of the shifting landscape crossed by a seemingly ordinary and everyday commodity

Back Roads to Israel Maxwell Thurston, 2019-02-07 The origin and emphasis of the Judeo Christian faith began with the call of Abram Concerning salvation have you ever asked why there is a need or a purpose for a call in the first place And besides who was God actually talking to in the land of Ur Back Roads to Israel is a study of Jesus's spiritual ancestry and background Author Maxwell Thurston helps explain how Abraham a man of flesh and bones has a direct ancestral lineage to Jesus because if Jesus is the Son of God then there must be spiritual DNA that connects him with the Lord our God who is in heaven Knowing the spiritual avenues taken by Abraham will take us to the beginning of creation when the living word was with God If you are able to travel the unbeaten path the back roads of Abraham then it will help clear up confusion about Jesus especially the part where we read From thy father's house
