Although food has been part of motion pictures since the silent era for the most part it has been treated with about as much respect as movie extras it s always been there on the screen but seldom noticed For the most part filmmakers have settled on three basic ways to treat food as a prop in which the food is usually obscured from sight or ignored by the actors as a transition device to compress time and help advance the plot as a symbol or metaphor or in some other meaningful way to make a dramatic point or to reveal an aspect of an actor s character mood or thought process This hugely expanded and revised edition details 400 food scenes in addition to the 400 films reviewed for the first edition and an introduction tracing the technical artistic and cultural forces that contributed to the emergence of food films as a new genre originated by such films as Tampopo Babette s Feast and more recently by films like Mostly Martha No Reservations and Ratatouille A filmography is included as an appendix Courtyard Housing for Health and Happiness Donia Zhang,2016-03-09 Health and happiness are fundamental to human quality of life The United Nations World Happiness Report 2012 reflects a new worldwide call for governments to include happiness as a criterion to their policies The Healthy Cities or Happy Cities movement has been endorsed by the WHO since 1986 and a Healthy House or Happy Home is a critical constituent of a healthy city or a happy city Nevertheless the concept has not been fully explored Existing literature on the healthy house has often focused on the technical economic environmental or biochemical aspects while current scholarship on the happy home commonly centers on interior decoration Few studies have addressed the importance of social and cultural factors that affect the health and happiness of the occupants Identifying four key themes in Chinese philosophy to promote health and happiness at home this book links architecture with Chinese philosophy social sciences and the humanities and in doing so argues that Architectural Multiculturalism is a vital ideology to guide housing design in North America Using both qualitative and quantitative evidence gathered from ethnic Chinese and non Chinese living in the USA and Canada the study proposes that the Courtyard is a central component to promote social and cultural health and happiness of residents It further details courtyard garden house design strategies that combine a sense of privacy with a feeling of community as represented in courtyard housing The schemes may have universal implications
