Back in the Day Darrin Keith Bastfield,2013-01-16 A star during his lifetime a legend after a bullet killed him at the age of twenty five Tupac Shakur was the most influential rap musician of his day and the most misunderstood Far from being the insolent gangsta that the press put forth Tupac was a committed and fearless visionary determined to make a difference not only on the music scene but in the black community at large Darrin Bastfield grew up with Tupac in a rough Baltimore neighborhood rapped with him fought with him and performed by his side Now in this vivid highly personal memoir featuring never before seen photos of the rap artist Darrin shows the world what Tupac Shakur was really like as a teenager destined for greatness In tight edgy prose Darrin follows Tupac through the seven years of their friendship In Roland Park Middle School in the mid 1980s rap was a kind of underground movement and the kids with real talent always found each other Tupac new in town a skinny thirteen year old with shabby clothes and lopsided hair may have looked uncool but it soon became clear that he had the gift When Tupac teamed up with Mouse king of the beatbox they blew the school away in their performance as the Eastside Crew It was the first in a series of increasingly electrifying performances When Tupac went to the Baltimore School for the Arts then it really started to happen A new group called Born Busy unforgettable performances at the Beaux Arts Balls an eye opening backstage encounter with Salt N Pepa their tight friendship with John known among black kids as the cool white boy a series of love affairs with adoring girls the wild nights of the 1988 senior prom Tupac and Darrin lived though it all together and in this memoir Darrin makes it all come alive again From the start Darrin knew Tupac was a marked man singled out by his charismatic gift So it came as no surprise that Tupac made it big when rap went mainstream What stunned Darrin was the violent turn Tupac s life took once he relocated to L A and how swiftly that violence engulfed and destroyed him Vibrant gritty alive with the tension and spontaneity of rap music this memoir of Tupac s teenage years is a haunting portrait of one of the most important artists of our day

Okonkwo, 2008 A groundbreaking study A Spirit of Dialogue examines through extensive interdisciplinary research theory and close reading the intricate reconstructions extensions and resonances of the West African myth of spirit children the Born to Die in contemporary African American neo slave narratives Arguing that the myth called Ogbaje in Igbo language and b k in Yoruba has had over thirty years of uncharted presence in African American literature Okonkwo advances a compelling case absent in extant scholarship He traces Ogbaje the Born to Die s appearance in African American texts to a convergence of factors They include but are not limited to the impact of Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart the 1960s emergence of the contemporary neo slave narrative the 1960s and 1970s black consciousness Black Power movement and the cultural agenda gendered politics and centripetal philosophy of the Black Arts movement s nationalist aesthetic African American identity questions of the post civil rights and the multicultural eras and the thematic shifts as well as the African diaspora orientation of African American fiction of the post nationalist aesthetic period A Spirit of Dialogue focuses on the sometimes neglected and understudied works of four canonical African American writers Octavia E Butler s Wild Seed and Mind of My Mind Tananarive Due s The Between John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing and Toni Morrison s Sula and Beloved Okonkwo demonstrates persuasively how the mythic spirit child informs the content and form of these novels offering Butler Due Wideman and Morrison a non occidental code by which to engage collectively with the various issues integral to the history experience of African descended people The paradigm functions then as the nexus of a life affirmative dialogue among the six novels as well as between them and other works of African religious and literary imagination particularly Things Fall Apart and Ben Okri s The Famished Road
