Back to Square One Jackie Adams, 2022-11-15 I know what you're thinking How could I stay in a dysfunctional abusive relationship for twelve years with a man who despises me We now have an eleven year old son together Lewis For the first time my son has shoved me like all the times he seen his father Ray do It only takes one time for my own son to abuse me when we end up leaving Ray to go to my parent's house They happily take us in and soon I have a seasonal job at Farmer's Market Lewis and I have made new friends We're happier than we've ever been When I get the divorce papers and we go to court about visitation with Lewis I'm neither surprised nor saddened Lewis my son said he doesn't mind going to see his dad for visitation The only problem is I have to worry about Ray's new act of playing a good father figure role will wear off Will he start abusing Lewis since I'm not home to take his abuse personally In time Lewis and I situate to a healthier functional routine Lewis and I both have settled We're still happy and Ray has been on good terms with Lewis I feel so great that I dip my toes in the dating scene So when this handsome man named Luke asks me to go out to eat with him I agree to it I soon regret it though It has nothing to do with him and everything to do with me I'm not ready Luke takes this to heart and becomes the rejected madman Soon fires are starting all around us Businesses and places my friends and I go to catch flames I can't believe it when Luke has the audacity to show up at my work and threaten me about the fires Could he be the missing culprit behind them Will this dramatic chaos ever end so that my son and I can move on with our lives and find ourselves better situated to a healthier dynamic Did I make the biggest mistake thinking I could date without havoc

United Nations Peacekeeping and the Politics of Authoritarianism Sarah von Billerbeck, Birte Julia Gippert, Kseniya Oksamytna, Oisín Tansey, 2025-01-11 What impact does UN peacekeeping have on the politics of authoritarianism in host countries This book advances a theoretically innovative and empirically rich answer to this question while the UN does not intentionally promote authoritarianism it faces a number of constraints and dilemmas that give rise to what we call authoritarian enabling Enabling can occur through two mechanisms capacity building and the creation of a permissive environment which enhance the ability of host governments to engage in authoritarian behavior and signal to them that doing so is low cost This book illustrates these two mechanisms with four in depth case studies of UN peacekeeping operations UNTAC in Cambodia MONUC MONUSCO in the Democratic Republic of Congo MINUSTAH in Haiti and UNMIL in Liberia The analysis is based on primary interview data from over 200 interviews The authors explore the sources of enabling identifying the trade offs and contradictions that give rise to these two mechanisms They include respect for sovereignty the importance of working relations with the host government the tension between democracy and other mission goals the pressure to demonstrate quick results and divergences within missions and the broader international community While enabling stops short of the outright promotion of authoritarianism it explains why the UN s activities often appear to contradict its stated objectives and the outcomes it delivers fall short of its goals In addition to its theoretical and empirical contributions the book suggests how these dilemmas and challenges can be overcome
