Prophecy and Power Among the Dogrib Indians June Helm, 1994-01-01 The Dogrib Indians are one of the Dene people of Western Canadian Subarctic they speak a language belonging to the widespread Athapaskan family whose southern relatives include the Navajos and Apaches of the southwestern United States This study draws on the author's field studies from 1959 to 1974 to present an ethnographic description of Dogrib religion The first part of the book introduces three prophets who came to prominence in the 1960s and 1970s Though they developed from the same tradition and had the same aims their prophetic styles contrasted dramatically with one another Helm situates the prophetic movement in relation to tribal and Christian traditions and shows the determining importance of the prophets personalities in shaping their teachings The second part of the book examines the traditional Dogrib concept of power ink on drawing on information given over the course of the years by Vital Thomas a religious leader who collaborated closely with Helm This firsthand material told in Thomas's own words is noteworthy for its personal perspective and for the understanding it provides of the differing sources and uses of power This concept of power is so pervasive in daily life that it forms the key for understanding the dynamics of Dogrib culture The book concludes with a brief autobiography related by Vital Thomas Prophecy and Power among the Dogrib Indians is important for documenting the prophet movement among the Dene people in the late twentieth century and for situating it historically in the context of Dogrib traditional culture

Twin Tracks James Burke, 2010-05-11 Twin Tracks is a landmark book of real world stories that investigates the nature of change and divines as never before the unlikely origins of many aspects of contemporary life In each of the work's twenty five narratives we discover how the different outcomes of an important historical event in the past often come together again in the future Each chapter starts with an event such as the U S attack on Tripoli in 1804 that generates two divergent series of consequences After tracking each pathway as it ranges far and wide through time and space Burke shows how the paths finally and unexpectedly converge in the modern world Twin Tracks pinpoints the myriad ways the future is shaped whether by love war accident genius or discovery For instance in The Marriage of Figaro to Stealth Fighter Burke s twin tracks start with the composer of the opera and the French spy from whose play he stole the plot The tracks then encompass among other things freemasonry the War of Independence Captain Cook jellyfish Jane Austen and audio tape Ultimately the convergence of the two Figaro tracks sets the stage for the development of Gulf War Stealth aircraft Wonderfully accessible and lucidly written Twin Tracks offers an amusing and instructive new view of the past and the future

Fort Union and the Upper Missouri Fur Trade Barton H. Barbour, 2002-09-23 In this book Barton Barbour presents the first comprehensive history of Fort Union the nineteenth century s most important and longest lived Upper Missouri River fur trading post Barbour explores the economic social legal cultural and political significance of the fort which was the brainchild of Kenneth McKenzie and Pierre Chouteau Jr and a part of John Jacob Astor s fur trade empire From 1830 to 1867 Fort Union symbolized the power of New York and St Louis and later St Paul merchants capital in the West The most lucrative post on the northern plains Fort Union affected national relations with a number of native tribes such as the Assiniboine Cree Crow Sioux and Blackfeet It also influenced American interactions with Great Britain whose powerful Hudson s Bay Company competed for Upper Missouri furs Barbour shows how Indians mixed bloods Hispanic African Anglo and other Euro Americans living at Fort Union created a system of community law that helped maintain their unique frontier society Many visiting artists and scientists produced a magnificent graphic and verbal record of events and people at the post but the old time world of fur traders and Indians collapsed during the Civil War when political winds shifted in favor of Lincoln s Republican Party In 1865 Chouteau lost his trade license and sold Fort Union to new operators who had little interest in maintaining the post s former culture Barton H Barbour is Professor of History at Boise State University and author of Jedidiah Smith No Ordinary Mountain Man also published by the University of Oklahoma Press
