The Abused Child in Search of Safety Kent S. Miller, 2004 Longtime Presbyterian layperson Dr Kent S Miller emeritus professor of psychology at the Florida State University Tallahassee who had spent much of his professional life focused on mental disability law and the relations between the mental health and the criminal justice systems decided to volunteer for a couple years in the Department of Children and Families in Florida to try to understand why they were getting such bad press This book is a result of this time spent with the Florida DCF and is an analysis of the current crisis in the child welfare scene based on the author's involvement with a program that has been racked with the scandals of missing and murdered children. If as Christians we are to care for the little ones and our neighbors then Dr Miller posits that we must address this concern immediately for we are sabotaging our nation's future by abandoning our at risk children to say nothing of incurring the wrath of our Lord who demonstrated a preferential option for children as well as for the poor.

Reforming Child Protection Bob Lonne, Nigel Parton, Jane Thomson, Maria Harries, 2008-07-10. Child protection is one of the most high profile and challenging areas of social work as well as one where children's lives and family life are seen to be at stake. Vital as child protection work is, this book argues that there is a pressing need for change in the understanding and consequent organization of child protection in many English speaking countries. The authors present compelling evidence from around the globe demonstrating that systems across the Western world are failing children, families and social workers. They then set out a radical plan for reform. Providing an overview of contemporary child protection policies and practices across the English speaking world. Presenting a clear and innovative theoretical framework for understanding the problems in the child protection system. Developing an alternative ethical framework which locates child protection in the broader context of effective and comprehensive support for children, young people and families at the neighbourhood and community levels. Grounded in the recent and contemporary literature, research and scholarly inquiry, this book capitalises on the experiences and voices of children, young people, families and workers who are the most significant stakeholders in child protection. It will be an essential read for those who work, research, teach or study in the area.

When Mothers Kill Cheryl L. Meyer, Michelle Oberman, 2008-06-01. Winner of the 2008 Outstanding Book Award by the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. Michelle Oberman and Cheryl L Meyer don't write for news magazines or prime time investigative television shows but the stories they tell hold the same fascination. When Mothers Kill is compelling. In a clear, direct fashion the authors recount what they have learned from interviewing women imprisoned for killing their children. Readers will be shocked and outraged as much by the violence the women have endured in their own lives as by the violence they engaged in but they will also be informed and even enlightened. Oberman and Meyer are leading authorities on their subject. Their 2001 book Mothers Who Kill Their Children drew from hundreds of newspaper articles as well as from medical and social science journals to propose a comprehensive typology of maternal filicide In that same year driven by a desire to test their typology and to better understand child killing women not just as types but as individuals Oberman and Meyer began interviewing women who had been incarcerated for the crime After conducting lengthy face to face interviews with forty prison inmates they returned and selected eight women to speak with at even greater length This new book begins with these stories recounted in the matter of fact words of the inmates themselves There are collective themes that emerge from these individual accounts including histories of relentless interpersonal violence troubled relationships with parents particularly with mothers twisted notions of romantic love and deep conflicts about motherhood These themes structure the books overall narrative which also includes an insightful examination of the social and institutional systems that have failed these women Neither the mothers nor the authors offer these stories as excuses for these crimes
