Backtracking Poems:

Backtracking Dave Oliphant, 2004 Poetry Dave Oliphant's BACKTRACKING explores the influences and inspirations that shaped the work of this prolific American poet. The impact of Spanish culture on the poet is featured at the beginning of the collection while his wife serves as the inspiration for an ongoing series of poems that celebrates the passion and mystery of their 37 year love affair. Oliphant also pays tribute to his forbearers and remembers literary and musical figures important to his life and those of his kinsmen. An eclectic gathering of poems on Texas landscapes and people, a Chinese film, the Connecticut composer Charles Ives, a Van Gogh painting and an elegy of Princess Diana are also included in this diverse and powerful collection of contemporary American poetry.

Backtrack and Other Poems John Powers, 2005-08 The poems in this collection represent for the most part my experience with Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome AIDS both on a personal level and as response to the illness and death among so many friends, lovers and others. I have learned unexpectedly that AIDS is not the end of my life, cocktails of effective drugs replete with some of the familiar disagreeable side effects keep me quite alive. I am as encouraged to live on as I feel deadened by the memory of this lasting plague. The shadow of AIDS lingers of course. We must not forget those who have died as well as the lethal character of this syndrome even as some lives are prolonged. But I hope these poems express a look toward a future less uncertain and not so necessarily defined in the context of the grim reality of disease.

Backtrack BN Oakman, 2023-11-02 Backtrack BN Oakman's third full length collection is a suite of poems created in response to an observed often baffling world. Oakman writes with conviction in a direct and lively style while employing various poetic forms to explore a wide range of emotions and experiences. He gives us poems crafted with empathy and humour about transient joys, abiding sadnesses, persistent injustices, fleeting triumphs and unassuageable grief, the whole exasperating mess and muddle of it all. Here are poems to engage the mind, touch the heart, nudge us to laughter and occasionally move us to tears. BN Oakman's first book with IP Interactive Publications Pty Ltd was In Defence of Hawaiian Shirts 2006. This was followed by Second Thoughts and the audiobook What Did I Know. Reviews: From Madrid to Finisterre by way of a morning chorus of magpies. Oakman's poetry speaks with grace and power to the insistence of history and memory but above all to the crucial importance of love. Valerie Krips, author The Presence of the Past. Memory, Heritage and Childhood in Postwar Britain. Eschewing the contorted subject matters and tortured language of his former academic colleagues as well as of many of his fellow poets writing today, Bruce Oakman is not afraid of being comprehensible. Yet there's nothing clichéd, simplistic or predictable about his poems. They invest all kinds of everyday themes with a wry subtlety of perception and a voice as elegant as it is earthy. Enjoy their expansive splendour. Ian Britain, The Making of Donald Friend. Life Art. The poetry in Backtrack is wonderfully unflinching in its focus on loss, injustice and the pain of living our mortal, loving lives. Humour and tenderness are in steady attendance but it is the poet's commitment to the truly well made poem which is the fundamental source of delight. Rich imagery and a narrative skill supported by a beautifully subtle syntactical flare are the bedrock qualities at work here To read through this deeply moving collection is to experience the unique Oakman blend of intelligence craftsmanship and compassion burning away the dark Ross Gillett Swimmer in the Dust Backtracking Stanley A.
